VOL. LV OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 31, 1902 NO. 179

LOS ALAMOS IS DAMAGED TODAY BY TERRIFIC EARTHQUAKE.

LOS ALAMOS, Cal., July 31.—The people of this city and vicinity are terror-stricken and are fleeing from their homes to places of safety, on account of the increasing severity of the earthquakes which have visited this section since the night of the 27th instant, since which time it is estimated seventy-five distinct shocks of earthquake have been felt.

SEVERE SHOCK.

The most severe shock occurred at 1:20 o'clock this morning, when the earth seemed to lurch from the south to the north and then twisted back again, destroying brick walls and piling everything within doors into unrecognizable heaps, toppling over heavy iron safes and destroying thousands of dollars' worth of goods.

The people are panic-stricken and many are leaving town by train and in available vehicles.

THREE DISTINCT SHOCKS.

Three distinct shocks were recorded between 7:25 and 7:30 o'clock this morning and these later disturbances added much to the terror of the inhabitants.

WHEELER SAYS LEAVE.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California was communicated with by telephone and advised that the people quit the town as soon as possible.

President Wheeler said that all of the scientists of the University were away on vacations, but he advised that the people be ready to flee at a moment's notice and for the doors of places of business and residences be left open so that those indoors might escape to the streets without delay in the event of further disturbances.

The advice of President Wheeler was communicated to the people at once and was immediately acted upon.

FINANCIAL LOSS.

It is impossible to estimate the financial loss at this time with any degree of accuracy, but it is believed that the disturbances of the last three or four days have damaged at least $30,000 worth of property.

Reports from other sections of the valley will probably increase this amount by many thousands.

No loss of life as yet has been reported.

CHURCH DEMOLISHED.

The only church in town is demolished and not a business house or residence escaped damage, ranging from $25 to $8,000.

The Western Union Oil Company is the heaviest loser, two of its immense storage tanks being demolished, releasing thousands of gallons of oil.

CENTER OF DISTURBANCE.

Later—Shortly before nine o'clock two more distinct shakes were felt.

Word comes from the towns of Lompoc and Santa Maria, each distant about twenty miles from Los Alamos, that the disturbances of last night were but slightly felt in the vicinity of those towns, showing that this place was the center of the disturbance.

FELT AT SANTA BARBARA.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 31.—The strip of territory in the upper portion of Santa Barbara county, in which is situated the towns of Lompoc, Santa Ynez, Ballard, Los Alamos, Los Olivos, and several smaller towns, was again visited by an earthquake early this morning. It was much the heaviest of the series reported from Los Alamos.

The first shock occurred at 1:20 a. m., and was what is called a twister, owing to the rotary motion of the seismic wave. This lasted for fully ten seconds and was followed by others of more or less severity until 4 o'clock.

The principal damage was to the drug-store of H. H. Yarris, where the bottled goods and glassware were thrown down, completely wrecking the place. Kahn's saloon shared a like fate. The stores of Fred Wickenden and C. Peirson were badly shaken up, in some places the walls have caved in and merchandise smashed. A large safe in Wickenden's store was overturned and went crashing through the floor.

The home of Attorney Alex Leslie is in bad shape, the plastering is all off, and safe, papers, dishes, books and furniture are piled in the center of the room in a broken and confused mass.

Other reports of damage are coming in but so far there has been no loss of life or serious injury to any one.

Telephonic communication with the district is interrupted this morning. A slight shock was felt at Santa Barbara at 1:20 a. m.

SHOCK AT CAYUCOS.

CAYUCOS, Cal., July 31.—A severe shock of earthquake was felt here about 1:30 o'clock this morning. No damage reported.

MRS. TROWBRIDGE MARRIES WM. POWERS IN NEW YORK.

Divorced Wife of the Well Known Druggist is the Bride of a Medical Student She Met at the Toland College.

Local society has another romantic marriage to speculate about over the teacups.

Following the example of her former husband, Mrs. Lillian Delger Trowbridge has married before the legal limit of one year has elapsed since her decree of divorce was granted.

Mrs. Trowbridge's second venture on the troubled sea of matrimony is with William John Sweasy Powers, a slim young man now taking a medical course at the Toland Medical College in San Francisco.

Mr. Powers has dark curly hair and cheeks as red as a mountain maid. Mrs. Trowbridge that was and Mrs. Powers that is has known him for a long time. Her acquaintance with him considerably antedates the filing of her suit for a divorce from Trowbridge.

Mr. Powers and Mrs. Trowbridge were married in New York on July 3d. They are now visiting relatives of the groom in Massachusetts, but will shortly return to make their home in Oakland or San Francisco.

On January 9th of this year a judgment was rendered in San Francisco separating Mrs. Powers from Henry O. Trowbridge, a prominent young druggist, identified with the Owl Drug Company.

This created something of a sensation because the pair had for years moved in the best society of Oakland. It was known that the pair had for some time been practically living apart but the news that the wife had applied for a separation provoked considerable gossip nevertheless.

Society had barely got over talking about the divorce before it was given another surprise by the news that Mr. Trowbridge had married Miss Georgia Shaw, a pretty girl employed as a saleslady in a Sacramento store. The new Mrs. Trowbridge came from El Dorado, where her family is well known and highly respected.

This wedding which took place on April 23d, was solemnized at Reno, Nevada, to get around the law of this State which forbids divorced persons to re-marry within one year after the decree of separation is granted.

Mr. Trowbridge and the second Mrs. Trowbridge are now honeymooning in a lovely home at Mountain View, Santa Clara county.

Now the first Mrs. Trowbridge has given the tabbies another dish of gossip by her marriage with young Mr. Powers. Her first wedding was a society event, but the latest one was celebrated without flourish of trumpets.

Mrs. Powers is the daughter of the late Frederick Delger, the well-known capitalist. She has a large fortune in her own right and a handsome residence on Vernon Heights. She created some talk by studying medicine while living apart from her husband and taking a degree as a doctor of medicine.

It is said that she became acquainted with her present husband while taking her medical course. Mrs. Powers has a son about 12 years old by her first husband.

The groom is a brother of Assemblyman Frank Powers of San Francisco.

CHILD IS BADLY BURNED.

The 5-year-old son of A. C. Hoffman of 5820 Vallejo street, while playing with a heap of burning rubbish this morning at 10 o'clock, fell into the fire, and before he could be rescued he sustained severe burns all over his body.

The child's cries attracted the attention of Mrs. Hoffman, mother of the boy. When she reached his side his clothing was on fire, and it was with great difficulty that the burning clothing was torn from the child.

In the meantime the rubbish which was piled against the fence ignited the wood and a still alarm was turned in. The Fire Department responded and put the fire out.

Medical aid was immediately summoned and soothing lotions applied to the child's burns. While the little sufferer is severely injured, it is not thought that he is fatally burned.

The supposition is that the boy, while playing with the rubbish, lighted it and watched it burn. When the flames began to mount into the air, it is assumed the little fellow became excited and tried to stamp the fire out, with the result that his clothing became ignited.

The boy is resting under the care of physicians this afternoon.

RUDYARD KIPLING IN SECLUSION.

PURCHASES NEW COUNTRY PLACE NEAR TURNBRIDGE WELLS, ENGLAND.

LONDON, July 31.—Rudyard Kipling, who has been much annoyed by the visits of Brighton excursionists to his house at Rottingdean, has purchased a new country place near Turnbridge Wells. Mr. Kipling's troubles at Rottingdean include a feud with the villagers, caused by the pro-Boer sentiments of his aunt, Lady Burne-Jones, the widow of Sir Edward Burne-Jones.

On June 2 Mr. Kipling dispersed a mob which threatened the house of his aunt, Lady Burne-Jones, at Rottingdean, because she had displayed a black banner inscribed, "You have killed, you have conquered."

To show his disapproval of the attack on his aunt's place, Mr. Kipling shut up a drill hall, which she had given to the public.

NEW TROLLEY LINE FOR RIVERSIDE

RIVERSIDE, Cal., July 31.—The new electric street car line is assured, the city trustees having awarded the franchise. Work is to be commenced within four months and completed in two years from the date of franchise. The road already connects Colton and San Bernardino. It is being built on to Redlands and from here it is to continue down the valley to Corona, making with its branches, necessary to cover the proposed territory, over fifty miles of electric road in one system. When to this is consolidated theten miles of road already in operation in Riverside, it will give this section valuable electric facilities.

TONS OF FRUIT ROTTING ON GROUND

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—Tons of ripe apricots are going to waste in the San Fernando Valley, just outside of Los Angeles. It is said that there are over 100 tons of fruit rotting on the ground of the orchards at Toluca and Burbank.

The trouble is that the ranchers are unable to hire men enough to care for the fruit crop.

NO STRIKE OF STABLEMEN.

SAN JOSE, Cal., July 31.—There will be no strike of stablemen in this city. The demand of the Protective Association for higher wages for its members has been acceded to. The wages agreed to are $2 per day, the men to board with whom and where they please.

SHOT HIS WIFE, THEN HIMSELF.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 31.—Fred Falkinberg, a teamster, shot and killed his wife as she lay asleep at their home at West Argentine last night, and then shot himself. He cannot recover. Jealousy probably was the cause.

ALAMEDA MAN CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Archibald S. Nesbit is Accused of Stealing $2,000 From Firm.

HE HAS LEFT HIS OLD HOME.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Another story of the embezzlement of large sums of money by a trusted employe was unfolded in the Hall of Justice this morning, when W. A. Barbour of the Linen Thread Company asked for a warrant for the arrest of Archibald S. Nesbit on a charge of embezzling a specific sum of $945 from the firm.

The loss of the firm reaches, so far as is known, to considerably over $2,000, and it may extend much beyond that sum. The firm is exceedingly reticent about the matter and none of the members will talk of the loss at all.

Nesbit, who was employed as cashier for some years, left the employ of the company last March. He has disappeared with his family from Alameda, where he resided.

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZERS MEET

ASSESSMENT OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC COMPANY IS UNDER DISCUSSION.

SACRAMENTO, July 31.—The State Board of Equalization was engaged today in considering the assessment of the Southern Pacific Company, E. Black Ryan, tax agent, and C. C. Reeves, assistant auditor, appearing for the corporation.

The Board first took up the matter of the assessment of the Central Pacific, which the Southern Pacific owns and operates and which was assessed last year for $13,000,000.

As returned to the Board, the net earnings of the Central Pacific for this year were $2,455,522.40 against $2,936,643.45 last year, a decrease of $477,609.05.

The gross earnings show an increase over those of last year, but the cost of operating increased from $6,252,327 in 1901 to $7,151,058 in 1902.

CARDINAL GIBBONS HAS PRAISE FOR SCHLEY

BALTIMORE, Maryland, July 31.—In a letter accepting the vice-presidency of the Schley Triumphal Arch Association, recently organized in this city to erect an enduring monument to the Admiral, Cardinal Gibbons says:

"Admiral Schley's victory shed glory on our State and I cheerfully accept the position assigned to me, earnestly hoping that the patriotic enterprise will meet a hearty response from the citizens of Maryland."

NOT TULARE OUTLAW.

SAN JOSE, July 31.—It has been ascertained that the man in the box car of the Southern Pacific train, who brandished a gun and threatened a brakeman last Monday, was not McKinney, the Tulare outlaw, but a drunken cripple, who was taking a free ride to his home in San Francisco. No gun was flourished. The weapon which scared the brakeman was a crutch.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—In the matter of the application of Governor Gage for a writ of prohibition to restrain Police Judge Fritz from hearing the action brought by Louis P. Boardman, the Supreme Court, en banc, today denied the writ. The decision follows:

DALTON'S STORY HEARD IN COURT.

Testimony Given by Assessor Before the Grand Jury is Read to the Talesmen.

This morning Stenographer Frank Barnet resumed the witness stand in the Dalton case, and the defense renewed their efforts to get Dalton's full statement before the Grand Jury in the record, the prosecution objecting on the ground that the major portion of it had no relevancy to the case in hand or the book transaction which caused Dalton's indictment.

Snook finally succeeded in getting in a portion in which Dalton stated that after giving the order to Oakes he subsequently gave an order to Stedman for 59 books to take the place of the 75 working rolls on the original order. This was intended to be a substitute, he said. In answer to inquiries made by the jurors and the District Attorney Dalton said he told Stedman to cancel the order for the thirty mortgage books saying he would subsequently give an order for something else to take their place.

ORDERS FOR OAKES.

Dalton stated that he had given the orders to Oakes to be hypothecated with the understanding that he, Dalton, was to receive the money in payment of a personal claim he held against Oakes.

He denied telling Stedman "my God, this thing will raise hell with me if it ever gets out."

He had never notified Lanktree or Oakes that he had given a substitute order to Stedman and canceled the order for the thirty mortgage books. He admitted giving Stedman the alleged substitute order when he knew Lanktree held the Oakes order as security for the $1500 he had advanced on them, but said Stedman was to hypothecate the second order and take up the order hypothecated with Lanktree.

The second lot of books ordered of Stedman was to take the place of the thirty mortgage books order. The money to be received on it was to be applied to taking up the $600 claim hypothecated with Lanktree.

TRUSTED STEDMAN.

Dalton said he trusted Stedman to do all this and never knew that the Oakes claims had been presented and paid.

The order he gave Stedman was a verbal one. Some time after, he said, Stedman came in with it and said, "Here is a bill for the 59 books made in the place of the 75 books ordered of Oakes. I wish you would place your approval on it so I can settle with Lanktree." [The bill is in evidence and is made out in favor of the Enquirer Publishing Company and not in favor of Oakes.]

"Who would the Enquirer look to for its money if the money paid by the county was to go to Lanktree in payment of the Oakes claim?" was asked by a member of the Grand Jury.

"I don't know," replied Dalton.

The Assessor told the Grand Jury that all would have been right if Stedman had carried out his instructions, but he gave no explanation why the alleged substitute orders were given to Lanktree instead of Oakes. He said, however, that he gave the second lot of orders for Oakes.

THEY LYNCHED THE MURDERER

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Charles Craven, the supposed murderer of William H. Wilson, a farmer living near Herndon, Va., who was capured this morning near Ashbury, Va., was lynched this afternoon, one mile east of Leesburg, Va. He was taken from the jail at Leesburg by a mob of 150 men who overpowered the guard, broke in the outer door and then entered the cage, using hammers and crowbars.

They encountered little resistance. A noose was then thrown around the prisoner's neck and he was led down the pike to the scene of the murder. The mob had proceeded scarcely a mile when the rope was thrown around a tree and Craven was pulled up on the ground. Fully 500 shots were fired at the dying man. Before Craven was lynched he was given an opportunity to make a statement.

He protested that he was innocent of killing Wilson. Men, women and children who lined the road from the jail to the scene of the execution, cheered the mob.

Govern or Montague was appealed to by the commonwealth and he ordered the Alexandria Light Infantry to the scene, but the mob accomplished its work before the arrival of the soldiers.

HILLS SPRING UP AS IF BY MAGIC.

Inhabitants Are Terrorized and Are Leaving the Country.

GAPING FISSURES IN THE EARTH.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Cal., July 31.—A strip of country fifteen miles long by four miles wide, rent with gaping fissures and dotted with hills and knolls that sprung up during the night as if by magic, a village in ruins and hundreds of people fleeing for their lives, are the results of last night's seismic disturbance in the prosperous and fruitvale valley of Los Alamos in the northern part of Santa Barbara county.

During the last four days that section of the country has been shaken by a series of earthquakes that is without precedent in the history of tradition of the Pacific Coast, and the continuance of the disturbances and the increasing severity of the shocks have so terrorized the inhabitants that they are leaving for other parts as rapidly as possible, and even now the village is almost entirely deserted. The disturbances began on Sunday evening with a shock which caused several thousand dollars' worth of damage to property in the village and the surrounding country being more severe and more disastrous in the vicinity of the Western Union Oil Company's wells on the Carriga ranch.

This shock was followed by a number of disturbances less severe and less disastrous, continuing through the remainder of Sunday night and Monday forenoon.

On Tuesday night beginning at 12:10 o'clock there was another series of seven shocks, all of which were light.

The general direction of these disturbances was east and west, and in action resembled the waves on a pool of water. The most severe shock of the entire series occurred at 1:20 o'clock this morning when the hills were shaken and twisted to their foundations and the valleys trembled and rolled like the unstable surface of the ocean.

Great fissures were run in the earth, hills and knolls appeared in level valleys, springs of water opened up in places that had been dry and the general topography of the valley was greatly changed in many respects. The disturbances had no general direction but was what is known as a "twister." It was preceded by a rumbling like that of distant thunder which increased until the earth began to rock and twist and the hills began to tremble. With the first warning of the sound of the approaching disaster, the terror-stricken people rushed into the streets and sought places of safety in vacant lots and fields, while many hastened toward the neighboring hills. The first vibrations were similar to the preceding disturbances in direction and effect, but they were immediately followed by the most terrific shock ever experienced in this section of the State, the earth trembled and rolled and twisted until it was impossible to stand erect and the terror-stricken people crouched together in the darkness fearful that the earth beneath them might open and swallow them up. The terror inspired by the rumbling and trembling of the earth was increased by the sound of falling buildings which gave some idea of the terrible destruction that was being wrought.

When the most severe shock had passed and the rumbling sounds had died away in distant hills the people gathered in groups about the ruins of their homes and places of business and when they saw the amount of damage done, many of them fearful of a repetition of this terrible experience immediately started on foot or by such conveyances as could be had, for places where the previous shocks had been less severe. In the darkness of the night, it was impossible to determine the full amount of the destruction wrought, but with the dawn of day the stricken village presented the appearance of ruins of a city long deserted. A church had been leveled to ground and not one brick building was left standing. Chimneys toppled over, frame buildings wrenched apart and thrown from their foundations, telegraph and telephone wires had been broken, and there was not a building in town that had not been damaged more or less seriously. In store buildings that were not totally destroyed the merchandise was thrown from shelves and everything breakable was destroyed; not a pane of glass was left in any window of any house in town and in the frame cottages and dwelling houses that were left standing, stoves were overturned and crockery and glassware were destroyed.

A conservative estimate of the loss to property in this village is $30,000, and this amount will probably be greatly increased by the damage done property in the surrounding country. Each merchant in town has lost at least $500 in stock and the damage to the buildings has been great. The section of the most severe portion of the disturbance is four miles long by four miles wide, but the shock was felt throughout Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo counties. At the Western Union oil wells on the Carriaga ranch two tanks have been thrown down and much other damage was done. The disturbances continued throughout the day at intervals of two hours, but none of the shocks were severe. The people have deserted the village, every conveyance having been taken, and the passenger and freight trains that have left here since the severe shock last night have been loaded with people who are fleeing to Santa Maria and the northern part of the county for safety. Since the disturbances on Sunday night there have been over seventy distinct shocks, and those who have been keeping records have now given up, as the disturbance has become almost continuous.

THE HOBARTS ROBBED.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning the residence of Mrs. Walter S. Hobart was robbed.

Several gold and silver ornaments were stolen and some particularly valuable miniatures, which were family heirlooms, were also taken by the burlar.

The gardener, Andrews, was sleeping in the front drawing-room, but was not disturbed by the house-breaker.

Mrs. Hobart's maid, Josephine, heard somebody moving in the front room and came downstairs, and as she entered the drawing-room saw the robber escaping out of the window.

Mrs. Hobart is anxious to have her miniatures returned, and is willing to pay a handsome reward for them.

ARE COMING TO PACIFIC COAST.

OFFICERS OF PUBLIC ROAD INQUIRY LEFT ON SPECIAL TRAIN FOR CALIFORNIA.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Great Northern Railroad Company has placed at the disposal of the officers of public road inquiry of the United States Department of Agriculture a railroad train for the purpose of transporting representatives of the office, engineers, roadbuilders and road machinery to be used in practical object lessons in road building. Road conventions will be held at the cities where the train will stop.

The train will start from Chicago August 15 and will reach Minneapolis early in September, where demonstrations of road building will be given. The train will then continue westward to the Pacific Coast, stopping at the principal cities en route, at each of which practical demonstration in good road building will be given. The chief aim will be to show what can be done with such road material as can be found in the vicinity of the various cities to be visited, introducing practical road machinery and the most approved methods of road construction.

DALTON CASE

Dalton admitted that he sometimes approved claims in blank, but said that was a custom in certain matters. He was asked how the difference between the amounts of the alleged substitute orders and the amounts of the hypothecated orders occurred, and replied that he left that matter to be settled between Lanktree, Oakes and the party who made the books.

He said he had no way of finding out what bills against his office were paid other than by inquiring at the Auditor's office.

The bills were never checked up in his office. Here is an extract from his statement:

"When did you tell Stedman to cancel the order for 30 mortgage books?"

"Some time in December or January."

"You knew Lanktree held that order for $600 advanced on it?"

"Yes."

"And that canceling the order destroyed his security?"

"Yes."

"If Lanktree's security was thus destroyed, how did you expect him to get his money?"

"I don't know."

"But you knew Oakes got that money from Lanktree on the strength of your O. K.?"

"Yes, but I told Stedman that I would give him something else to take its place."

"That was for books in 1903?"

"I did not say when."

The reading consumed the entire morning.

Recess.

PROSECUTION CLOSES.

The prosecution announced that it closed its case.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The reading of Dalton's testimony before the Grand Jury showed Dalton's deny that he received the $800 paid by Lanktree to Stedman on the last lot of 59 books hypothecated. This is the money Stedman said he gave Dalton on the 20th of January in the stair doorway near Keller & Fitzgerald's store.

Dalton admitted that he had seen Oakes several times each month after giving him the orders on the 19th of August, 1901, but never told him he had given Stedman a substitute order for the 75 working rolls or had told Stedman to cancel the order for thirty mortgage books.

It appeared that the 59 plat books furnished by the Enquirer were not according to schedule, and the County Expert cut the bill down from $1062 to $944.

When asked if the County had ever investigated to see if the books were according to schedule he said no. Asked why he said he did not know he said it was not for him to criticize the expert. Dalton said he had no book in which he kept a record of his transactions with Oakes. He had never kept any record of the money received on the Oakes checks. He did not give Daniels a receipt for it.

DALTON'S DENIAL.

Asked if he had kept a record of the $800 he had received from Stedman, he denied ever getting the money.

"But if you did get it you have no book which would show it?" asked a juror.

"No," was the answer.

"Do you know how much Oakes owes you?"

"Only within several hundred dollars."

"Have you any way of telling how much he owes you?"

"Only by checks."

"Have you any account that will show how much he owes you?"

"No."

Dalton said Oakes had been indebted to him for several years, and that he had given him money from time to time.

He denied that he had given Oakes the various sums in return for the political support of his newspaper.

"Did Oakes ever pay you any interest?" asked a juryman.

"I never asked him for any," was the response.

"Suppose the books had been made on the Oakes order before you received the approval of the State Board of Equalization to the changed form, would the county have been obliged to pay for them although they would have been useless?"

"I would have made some arrangement about that so the county would not have to pay for them."

Dalton said there were over 40 useless books in the Assessor's office, but could not say when he had ordered them.

At the conclusion of the reading Barnet was released from the stand.

OAKES RECALLED.

When the prosecution announced that their case was closed the defense asked leave to recall George A. Oakes for additional cross-examination.

Oakes was questioned about two affidavits he had made. He said the first one was made in the office of Judge Nusbaumer and the second in the office of Mr. Hill. He said he was called to Nusbaumer's office by telephone, and while there Mr. Nusbaumer told him he was in a serious position about the books being missing.

"Did he tell you that you had better make the affidavit?"

"I think he did."

"Was the affidavit read over to you before you signed it?"

"It was."

"What day was that on?"

"Sunday, June 1st."

"Were you ever in Mr. Nusbaumer's office to make any other statement in reference to this matter or any change in the affidavit?"

"No, sir."

"Do you want to strike it out because it was made on Sunday?" asked Foote sarcastically.

Fitzgerald then offered the affidavit in evidence without reading, but Foote insisted on its being read to the jury.

Foote then showed Oakes the two checks received from Lanktree and questioned him closely about his endorsements on them.

"Are these your signatures?" asked Foote.

"I think they are."

"Take this one for $600—are you sure that is your signature?"

"Yes."

"Now look at this check for $900—did you write your name on that?"

"To the best of my knowledge I did."

"Don't you know whether you signed it or not?"

"To the best of my recollection I did."

"Does it look like this other signature?"

"There is some difference, but I don't always write alike."

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Yesterday afternoon the repeated attempts of Counselor Snook to get Dalton's entire statement before the Grand Jury in evidence provoked several good natured passages between the attorneys. Snook attempted to get it in by reading portions of it as questions, but was sharply cut off by the court. Judge Ellsworth examined the transcript of Dalton's evidence and then stated that several pages of it contained no answer to any question and the statements therein had no relevancy to anything about the book transaction. Snook objected to the Judge's remark and also to his ruling. The wrangle continued till court adjourned for the day.

WRIT OF PROHIBITION.

C. E. Kluard, the attorney, has petitioned for a writ of prohibition against Police Judge Smith, to prevent him from hearing a second charge of misdemeanor embezzlement preferred against him by W. G. Halloway, a first complaint involving the sum of $14 having been dismissed.

The proposed second trial is set for tomorrow in the Police Court.

DISSIPATING MOTHER'S ESTATE

SERIOUS CHARGES ARE BROUGHT AGAINST G. P. GREEN OF ALAMEDA.

Judge Hall this afternoon appointed Public Administrator B. C. Hawes as special administrator of the estate of the late Sarah J. Green, who died in Alameda, last December.

The order was based upon an affidavit by Tom M. Bradley, the attorney, in which, among other things, Mr. Bradley charges.

"Affiant is informed and believes that one George P. Green has in his possession or under his control money in the sum of $406 belonging to the estate of said deceased and is also collecting rents of certain realty of said estate, and that he, said George P. Green, is spending, squandering and dissipating said moneys, and that the heirs and legatees herein have no bond or security whatever for the protection of their interests herein."

Mr. Bradley asked that George P. Green be cited to appear before the court and explain the charges made.

George P. Green is a son of the decedent.

Sometime ago, when Mrs. Green felt she was going to die, she left George Green the money in question as also realty in Alameda, valued at about $4000. She recovered, however, and demanded the restoration of her property, but her son refused to return it.

In December last, however, she passed away, disinheriting George. Two other children of the deceased favor the granting of special letters to Hawes.

WILL NOT SHIELD WHITE.

MAYOR SCHMITZ SAYS THERE MUST BE A PROSECUTION IN THE CASE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—There will be no shielding of White allowed. He must be prosecuted when captured and punished for his crime. For the sake of example, no employe of the city who steals the city's funds can go free from prosecution, even though he make restitution, while I am the Mayor —Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz in an interview.

Is there an effort being made to shield William J. H. White, the absconding cashier of the Works Board? The rumor that such is the case, that he will be allowed time before he is apprehended to make his deficit good and the prosecution will be dropped is current about the City Hall. There is an apparent apathy in the efforts at capture of the missing man, both by the police and the Pinkertons, that can be explained only in this way. The fact that the knowledge of embezzlement and flight of the cashier was kept secret by the Works Board from Monday, July 21, when the bogus telegram from St. Helena was received and its character determined, and when the bookkeeper notified Secretary Park of the receipt of the Wilson money stolen by White, up to the time of Monday afternoon, July 28, when "The Post" made the story public; the fact that in this week's Interval notice had not been given the police of the embezzlement; that a warrant was not sworn out until "The Post's" exposure of the crime forced some action, all tend to show that an effort is being made to protect White from the law.

There has been nothing accomplished, according to the statements of Captain Martin, Chief of Police Detectives, and Superintendent Kemble of the Pinkerton agency, in locating White. Detective Tom Gibson, who was assigned to the case, has gone to Los Angeles, Captain Martin says, to bring back the absconding cashier of the Joshua Hendy Machine Works. He has dropped the White matter completely, according to his chief. The Pinkerton agency has been no more successful in finding a clew, but admits that White is probably still in San Francisco.

Regardless of efforts to keep White from a prison cell, Mayor Schmitz has taken the ground that the man must be prosecuted for the benefit of the example.

J. Leo Park, who is connected with the San Francisco Board of Works, was formerly a deputy under Former Tax Collector Alex Rosborough.

WRONG VALUATION OF KOCH ESTATE

JUDGE OGDEN REFUSES TO SET ASIDE PROPERTY FOR THE USE OF THE WIDOW.

Judge Ogden has denied the petition of Anna Koch, widow of the late Hermann Koch, to have the entire estate of the deceased set aside for her individual use.

In the petition the widow set forth that the estate was valued at only $1,500. It was shown at the inquiry, however, that the estate comprised, among other things, a secured promissory note for $400 and that this, with the other items, caused the value of the estate to exceed $1,500.

COUNTY EDUCATORS HOLD A MEETING.

There was to have been a meeting of the County Board of Education this morning, at which the Board was to have organized for the ensuing year. There were present Messrs. Petray, Dr. Gamble, J. A. Elston and Superintendent Crawford.

Owing to the absence of P. M. Fisher, the work of organization was deferred till August 16.

Teachers' certificates will be issued next Saturday.

The Board stood adjourned till August 16.

LYNCHED FOR HIS CRIME.

CAMDEN, Arkansas, July 31.—Lee Newton, a negro, has been lynched by a mob in the Cornie Bottoms, twenty-five miles from Magnolia. A month ago the negro was found in the room of two young daughters of a prominent family. Twice he escaped from custody. He was being taken to Magnolia by officers when the mob seized him.

DECIDES IN FAVOR JUDGE FRITZ

ination of John D. Spreckels and W. S. Leake upon a criminal charge of libel of the said Gage on the complaint of one Boardman.

"The grounds of the petition are that a charge of the same identical libel was pending before a Justice of the Peace in the county of Los Angeles upon a complaint made by said Gage, and that therefore the said Police Judge of San Francisco has no jurisdiction to entertain and proceed with said preliminary examination; and, also, that the said proceeding before the said Police Judge is collusive.

"Waiving the question whether a certain judgment of the Superior Court of San Francisco, which has been presented to us, denying a similar petition for prohibition, is conclusive on the question, and not determining the question whether the said Police Judge Fritz has any jurisdiction in the premises, still the petition for the writ must be denied for the reason that the said Gage is not legally a person 'beneficially interested,' within the meaning of section 1103 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Whether the proceedings before the Police Court are collusive is a question primarily to be determined by the prosecuting officers, and by the magistrate with whom the complaint is lodged.

"The petition for the writ is denied."

CASE CONTINUED.

The case of Ysebel Sanchez, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was continued in the Police Court this morning to file complaint.

TELL ABOUT EARTHQUAKES.

WHAT THE PROFESSORS AT UNIVERSITY SAY ON THE SUBJECT.

BERKELEY, Cal., July 31.—Regarding the unprecedented severity of the earthquakes in Santa Barbara, Professor Samuel B. Christy of the University of California said:

"While Southern California earthquakes were unusually severe it was nothing more than could be expected. The western coast of this continent is liable to have such shocks at any time. Any great contraction of the earth on the Pacific Coast may be accompanied by damage to property. It is a well known scientific fact that as the earth cools in the interior the earth crust on which we live is bound to give, causing a jarring effect of varying intensity."

James Maddrill, who has charge of the observatory of the University of California this summer, said:

"From unofficial sources we have learned that the southern earthquakes were practically localized. This is strange, since the shocks were so severe. In quakes of sufficient vibration to raze a building, the shock is generally plainly felt for a radius of hundreds of miles. The disturbance, however, was scarcely felt here, the seismograph of the University showing but a faint record."

T. L. Heaton of the University of California said:

"While scientists are working on the theory of the probable cause of the earthquakes in Santa Barbara county, the exact reason will probably never be known. There was evidently a slip in the stratas of the earth. In such cases a slight displacement sometimes produces a fearful shock. The theory has been advanced that the removal of great quantities of oil from the earth in Southern California is responsible for the seismic disturbances. I hardly think this possible, as the oil wells do not penetrate the earth deep enough into the hot region."

SHE SAYS CAPT. STRONG IS NOT TRUTHFUL.

MAY YOHE SAYS SHE IS DONE WITH THE GAY NEW YORKER.

LONDON, July 31.—May Yohe reached here today from Plymouth, where she landed this morning from the Fuerst Bismarck, from New York. She was registered on the steamer's passenger list as Mrs. Batchellor.

To reporters here she declared she had never authorized Putnam Bradlee Strong to pawn anything of hers and she said she had never been paid any of the money obtained on the pawned jewels. When she was shown an interview with Strong in which he denied that he had pawned her diamonds, she said:

"That is all a batch of lies. For the $400,000 worth of goods which Strong pawned, his brother-in-law, A. R. Shattuck, put up $22,000, out of which I paid $5,000 to Emanuel Friend, my attorney, and $8,110 to pawnbrokers. Strong's story that he paid back anything is another lie.

"I do not know until I get my mail whether I will go to France or not. I know he is there but I do not want to have anything to do with him. I have suffered all this outrageous treatment to save his mother and my own. I am anxious to get to Genoa, where I have tickets for a tiara, diamond heart and other things he pawned. I have no means whatever. I may land in Kamchatka before I get through."

When she was shown a statement of Lord Hope's bankruptcy case, mentioning that Hope's counsel disputed a note of 9,187 pounds given to her, Miss Yohe said:

"That's right; the money is due me and I'll fight for it until I get it."

WHAT LABOR UNIONS ARE DOING

Prosperous Times For the Men Who Work For a Living.

Recent reports from the labor unions are given in the Industrial News as follows:

LONGSHOREMEN'S UNION.

The longshoremen are still increasing their membership roll, and are all busy this week, there being plenty of work in hand. They are principally engaged in unloading schooners for Oakland lumber dealers, which have come in during the past few days. One of these is for Taylor & Co., carrying 100,000 feet, a second for the Derby Co., carrying 450,000 feet, and a third loaded in part for Derby, and in part for Kendall, carries 35,000 feet. Two more steam schooners are expected in during the next week.

The members are taking a deep and active interest in the preparation and training of their tug-of-war team, which, under the careful training of Capt. McPherson is getting ready to enter the lists for the $35 and glory prize at the teamsters' picnic, August 3rd, at Glenwood park. The boys are resolved to turn the table on the teamsters, who recently defeated them at San Lorenzo, if muscle and determination can do it.

TEAMSTERS.

The Teamsters' union continues to increase numerically, four new members being added at the last meeting.

All are busy and times are good with the members. For the most part their pockets are well lined, and they are looking forward to somewhat decreasing the weight of these and having a royal good time at their picnic at Glenwood park, Sunday, August 3d. A leading feaure of he sports upon this occasion will be the tug-of-war between the local's team and the longshoremen's seven.

Capt. George Lester is getting his men into shape and confidently expects that they will pull like draft horses when the tussel comes. The team is made up a follows: Capt. George Lester, Ed Waldin, C. H. Johnson, Geo. Akers, A. Johnson, Jno Sheehan, Brady Marlin and Jas. Cronin.

There being no hackmen's union in Oakland, the drivers for the carriages in the labor parade, Wednesday evening, had to be secured from the teamster's union.

Frank Higuera, business agent of the teamsters' union, being appealed to in the matter secured Al Kearney, Thos. Gallagher, Chris Oman and H. Gluck, four competent men from among his people for the work.

RETAIL CLERKS.

Everything is moving along prosperously with the retail clerks, and they have every reason to feel satisfied with the results of their work on organization.

There were six initiations at the last meeting, the candidates coming from the well known grocery store of F. Anderson, on Washington, between Seventh and Eighth streets. Not only did all the employees of this establishment join the union, but the proprietor himself signed the clerks' agreement, and in every way possible encouraged his men in thir action.

TAILORS' UNION.

Business moves along smoothly with the tailors. A considerable number of the member are absent on vacation, and all matters of importance are laid over for their return; the local is fortunate in having no knocker in its camp to promote disturbance.

The new by-laws have been prepared and will be passed upon about the first of the coming month.

The members of the local have elected A. F. Lindow a delegate to the county convention of the united labor party.

JOURNEYMEN BARBERS.

There will be a called meeting of the barbers' local for he evening of August 4th, to consider several important matters.

A delegation was present at the last meeting from the San Francisco local to invite members to attend the latter's grandbal l, which occurs on he evening of July 31st.

A new system of roll call is to be put in vogue by the local. Cards representing the members will be deposited with he secretary. When he calls the roll he will check upon these the presence or absence of the member it represents. If a member is not present at least once each month he is fined 50 cents, and this system will instantly show whether or not he is subject to such fine.

PAINTERS.

The painters are now enjoying a very desirable degree of busines prosperity.

A large number of building begun from one to three months since are now in shape to receive the attention of the craft, and the brushes fly merrily.

Still, the boys are not too busy to overlook a good time occasionally as was indicated at their smoker, held at headquarters recently. A large number of the member of the local assembled for a good social time and they had it to the queen' taste. There were songs, clog and fancy dancing, piano and violin solos, sparring matches and liquid and gastronomic features galore. There was plenty of fun and relaxation, and everybody went home happy and refreshed.

The local union sent a communication to the Board of Education asking that union painters be allowed to do the painting and varnishing about the school buildings, instead of the janitors therof as has always been the practice. No reply was received to this request and a second one of the tenor has been sent to the Board, from which better results are hoped.

LAUNDRY DRIVERS.

The laundry drivers will have an important meeting on the first Tuesday in August, to the necessity of attending which, they wish to call the especial attention of all members. Officers will be elected and other important business matters attended to at this meeting.

The drivers, upon whose activity and business like qualities the industry with which they are connected largely depends for success, are still waiting patiently for the employer to come to a better business understanding, and thus cut out some of the cutthroat competitive features that now render their duties so unpleasant and difficult of performance. They believe that the true spirit of unionism among proprietors would be a grand thing for the business.

COOKS AND WAITERS.

At the last meeting of the Cooks and Waiters there were four initiations and two applications for membership.

The question of recognizing women waiters as unionists was considered, and it was resolved to grant them the privileges of membership. A special meeting for the purpose of organizing them was held in California hall Monday evening. The women waiters in Oakland number about twenty.

Newhouse, the coffee and spice man of 1071 Broadway has unionized his establishment and signed the union agreement.

J. T. MORAN RETURNS FROM EASTERN TOUR.

Metropolis, Capital and Other Points of Interest as They Appear to a Bright Man of Business.

J. T. Moran, the well-known manufacturing clothier and gentlemen's furnisher, at the southeast corner of Broadway and Eleventh street, has returned to Oakland from an absence of three months in the East. He comes back in the best of spirits. This means a great deal, for the reason that Mr. Moran is always in a cheerful frame of mind, and, as a consequence, nobody sees on his features, under any and all circumstances, anything save the radient smile which is, at once, a reflection of the sunny climate of Oakland, which he so greatly admires, and of his own genial disposition.

MIND AND MATTER.

Physical, as well as mental vigor, has come back with Mr. Moran, because he displays a fuller and more ruddy set of features and imposes a greater weight, by several pounds, upon the balance when he seeks to ascertain his avoirdupois.

SEES AMERICA FIRST.

When Mr. Moran left here in May last it was intimated that if he had time, he would take a trip across the ocean. The intimation, however, was not well-founded, for the reason that Mr. Moran has returned without having gone any place save where he might obtain a more extensive acquaintance with his own country and that acquaintance has made him all the more proud of the land of his nativity.

Speaking on this subject to-day, Mr. Moran said: "Even if I had had the time and had gone to Europe without first having seen the capital of my own country, I would be ashamed of myself. This is the first trip across the continent which I have taken in which I have been able to include the capital at Washington. I believe with Washington Irving that no American ought to go abroad before he gets a liberal knowledge of and acquaintance with his own country.

IN PHILADELPHIA.

"I remained there a week. There was something to be seen every day and, of course, we could not see all that we would have liked to see within that short time. I met "Tip" O'Neill, and he showed me around and we had a fine time. We went to Mt. Vernon. We went through Virginia. We went through Maryland. We went to Philadelphia and had, of course, to see the old Liberty Bell, and also the pen with which the declaration of Independence was signed. It is kept there in a case and is considered a very sacred political relic. There were visitors from all parts of the country. But the most beautiful place of all is Washington.

MR. METCALF.

"There we met Congressman Metcalf. We had just about time to have a good handshake with him, because it was about the time for the closing of the session. We had to see him while the session was going on. He was going to leave the next morning.

CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY.

"The Congressional Library is the handsomest thing which I ever saw. I could spend a whole week on it alone. I saw there, among countless other things, old papers printed in 1602, with the old-style type. I was charmed with the place. Inside it is all mosaics and marbles. It is the grandest building I have seen in my life.

Attorney Redmond, who is a friend of "Tip" O'Neill, sent around his carriage, and, with himself and his footmen, we rode around Washington all the week. We went wherever we wanted to.

MT. VERNON.

"At Washington Home, at Mount Vernon, we drank out of the same pump that Washington drank out of, and, in the kitchen, my wife drank out of the same cup that Washington had used.

The old home of Washington contains sixteen rooms. I saw the bed on which Washington died. We also saw the bed in which Washington's wife died. The old coach of the family is there also. It is still in the stable on the grounds. The old tomb of Washington is still there. We saw it, as also the new one in which they have entombed him. Sitting on the porch of the old home and recalling many of the good things which had been said of Washington, it was sad to think that such a man had to die and leave all behind him. I am sorry to say, too, that I know some unkind things were said of Washington when he was alive, but then, you know, many people do not know a good man until after he is dead.

IN ALEXANDRIA.

"We went to Alexandria and saw all that was to be seen there. Alexandria is a city which was laid out by Washington when he was 16 years old. We saw the old Marshall house where Colonel Ellsworth was killed. My wife liked the town. She was glad to go over the ground where her father had trodden as a soldier. He died from the injuries he received in the war.

"Washington is one of the cleanest cities in the world, and Pennsylvania avenue is a great sight to behold. It was my first visit to that city. It's the only city to live in for pleasure, but one would require $20,000 a year. He would have to have an income of that amount every year. Rooms are high there, even without meals. My Room was $10 a day, exclusive of meals. I stopped at the Raleigh. There, there was a fine string orchestra playing from 6 o'clock in the evening to midnight.

CAPTIVATED.

"My wife was captivated with Washington and New York. She would like to live in either, but, as I said, one should have an income of some thousands a year."

NEGRO WON THE GAME.

Mr. Moran's enthusiasm as a patron of baseball accompanied him to the East, and impelled him to take in a game in New York City between the Yale and Harvard University teams. Commenting on the fact, Mr. Moran said:

"It was a colored man who won the game in the ninth for Harvard, and there had been opposition to allowing him to play with Harvard. Yale had prevented the colored man from playing in one game, but they allowed him to play in the game the day I was there. Harvard won by one run, and it was the colored man who made that run. He lined out a one-bagger and then another man made a hit and brought the colored man home. You ought to have heard the shout that greeted that run. The Harvards and many of the people threw their arms around the colored player, who was a student of Harvard. Of course, he could not have played unless he was a student of the college. It was entertaining to hear the supporters of the rival teams cry and laugh and groan at one another. When Yale was behind it was 'Oh, poor old Yale is down,' and when Harvard was losing the same cries were adapted to her condition. Besides, there were the usual college yells, and the 'rah, rah, rah!' all through the game.

"There must have been 20,000 people present at the game. They came from all parts of the adjoining States.

NEW YORK CITY.

"Ah, New York is the place for business and business was good there. Strikes were having some effect on some lines, but not on the general volume of industry or trade. A day or two before I left, 40,000 tailors went out on a strike. There were 25,000 went out on one day and the rest went out later. I believe they are out yet. This takes place nearly every year.

MANUFACTURES.

"In manufacturing institutions, they are full of business, and they are full of orders. They are so full of orders that they cannot turn them out.

PERKINS IN THE SENATE.

"I saw Senator Perkins only from the gallery of the Senate. It was the closing day. The Senate was busy debating and it was just at the closing time.

WEATHER.

"The weather was just commencing to get pretty warm, when we were coming away.

BOUGHT A LARGE STOCK.

"I did not care much about Chicago. I never enjoy myself there. It is larger than ever, but I generally go by it. New York is the place to buy goods in. I bought a full stock of clothing and cloths of the finest goods and greatest variety and they will be immediately placed on the market. The price of goods is about the same.

GLAD TO BE HOME.

"With all our enjoyment in the East, we are glad to get back to the glorious climate and to California, which is God's country."

SCHOOL AS A SOCIAL FACTOR.

The Public School House Should Be a Local Center for Enlightenment and Progress.

The American public school is the soul center of every community, the bulwark of the nation. The public use and the public ownership of the public school is the best example of pure democracy even in this country.

The public schools were builded better than we knew, welded for a larger purpose than that to which we are putting them. We are neglecting our opportunities. The public school should be a social as well as an educational center. School houses and churches, too, for that matter, should be open at all times, instead of only a few hours a week, for the social reception of all the people who desire to take advantage of such opportunities.

The public school could do no higher service to the community in which it is located than by making itself a social center, a social settlement, such as we have in the large cities. This is being done in New York, Chicago and other cities.

The common people are the only people in this country. Don't let us neglect them. It is the business of the public school to enlighten the parents as well as their children. The public schools should be made civic centers, places where the fathers and mothers may congregate. People are as good as they know. It is the business of the common school to teach them what they should know. I know no better place to counteract public abuses than in the public school. It is not in the interest of our finer element that I plead. It is for the whole people. Some of our otherwise comparatively well informed native born citizens have little or no idea of the essential principles of a democratic form of government.

The making of our public schools a social center would not increase the school tax levy. It could not be done almost without expense. The public school has on its hands the possibility of making an ethical center, regardless of theological differences. The public school is the soul of the great religion of democratic relationship.—Graham Taylor in the Michigan Moderator.

Ping-Pong for Toledo Jurymen.

The suggestion has just been made in Toledo, O., that in the county court house the court rooms for juries that are out a long time be fitted up with ping-pong sets. It is said that the county commissioner has received the suggestion favorably, and doubtless in a short time the rooms of the staid old court house of Toledo will be ringing to the cheerful notes of the ping-pongers. One is inclined to speculate as to what effect this may have upon the length of time it will take a jury to come to a decision. Ping-pongers have been known to become so interested in their game as to forget to eat and to sleep. How cheerful it will be to the prisoner, too, as he sits with his fate hanging in the balance, to hear the merry little balls go scudding over the table. It might possibly recall to his mind the story of a certain Nero who is said to have fiddled while Rome was burning.—New York Evening Sun.

GOOD WORK OF REALTY MEN.

THEY START IN EARNEST TO IMPROVE THE CONDITION OF THE CITY.

The directors of the Real Estate Dealers' association held a meeting last night in the offices of R. A. Jackson, secretary of the organization. The meeting was called for the discussion of various important matters relative to the business and was private.

At the meeting a communication was received from City Superintendent of Streets Ott in answer to one forwarded to him by the association and shows the excellent benefits the community will derive from the organization and the results that such effort will have upon real estate dealers in this city.

The communications are as follows:

Oakland, Cal., July 26, 1902.

Charles F. Ott, Esq., Superintendent of Street, Oakland, Cal.

Dear Sir: At a meeting of the Oakland Real Estate Agents' Association, representing forty-four firms doing a general real estate business in this city, held in July 14, 1902, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the secretary address the Superintendent of Streets and request him to enforce the ordinance, relative to the removal of weeds from sidewalks where cement is laid, and that he, in the discharge of his duty, will have the hearty co-operation of this Association."

One of the objects of this association is for the improvement and advancement of the city of Oakland, and as many of our streets are in a deplorable condition, arising from the neglect of property owners in the removal of weeds from sidewalks and gutters, we deem the enforcement of said ordinance one of the first and most essential movements towards the city's advancement, and therefort have taken the matter up and will be glad to cooperate with you, and your department and render you aid and support in your work.

At your convenience, the officers of of this Association would be pleased to meet and confer with you on the subject.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT A. JACKSON, Secretary.

F. J. WOODWARD, President.

Oakland, Cal., July 29, 1902.

Robert A. Jackson, Esq., Secretary Oakland Real Estate Agents' Association, Oakland, California.

Dear Sir: Your favor of the 26th inst. (in re Clean Streets) to hand; replying thereto will say that we work under an ordinance, a copy of which I herewith enclose.

Our main trouble in getting weeds from sidewalks and gutters seems to be from non-residents owning property in Oakland. As you will see from the ordinance any party having control of the property will be held responsible but I do not believe a conviction could be had over any agent. So many agents are limited to the sale of the property only. That could be overcome largely by members of your Association, by securing agencies more comprehensive.

In regard to keeping weeds from the gutters, as you are undoubtedly aware, we have every fall a general cleaning. It seems impossible to get enough funds to clean all streets but we use our best judgment in selecting those streets which we believe to be most traveled. I will say that at all seasons of the year, however, we have carts which we send to remove gutter cleanings where the owners have done the work and put the dirt and weeds in piles. At any time you or any member of your Association notices a piece of property where the sidewalks are overgrown with weeds, if you will send me a description of it with the name and address of the owner (if you know it) I will be pleased to send him a copy of the weed notice.

With regard to a conference with the members of your Association, I shall be pleased to meet with you any afternoon or evening save and except the evenings of Monday or Thursday, at which time the Council and Street Committee meet.

Wishing you every success in your new venture and assuring you that I will do everything in my power to assist you, I beg to remain

Yours very truly,

CHARLES S. OTT, Superintendent of Streets.

It was decided by the directors to supply all members of the Association with the ordinance spoken of in the communications. All "For Sale" signs are to be removed from certain districts of the city and gradually, if the experiment is satisfactory, all signs will be removed. Rates of commissions on rentals and leases were discussed at some length by those present but nothing was decided.

DON'T GET IN A SWEAT

Perspiration—"sweat" is what the Bible and we common people call it—is a way nature has of driving out of the body refuse that has no business there. We sweat more in summer, because, in the overheated bowels, undigested food ferments more quickly than in winter and produces irritating acids and gases. The bowels, overworked, try to relieve themselves by violent convulsions, causing terrible gripes and colics, and diarrhoeal discharges so acid as to make you sore, and leaving the intestines weak and worn out. Nature assists body-cleaning by sending the filth out through the pores of the skin. It is not safe to stop perspiring altogether but most of the impure matter should be sent out by natural movements of the bowels, and the offensive, ill-smelling, linen-staining sweat done away with. Keep your bowels strong all summer with the pleasant, candy cathartic CASCARETS, that clean the system and don't allow the excrement to be sweated out through the pores. Take a tablet every night, before going to bed. They work while you sleep and make you feel fine and cool all day.

JOHN BULL'S COMPLAINT.

A few years ago the British press was complaining because the British markets were flooded with cheap beef from America. It was declared that this stuff was inferior and unhealthy, but it met especial condemnation because it undersold English beef in the English market. Such an outcry was raised that beef shipments fell off, but the shipments of cattle increased. We sent them the cattle on foot and let the English butchers slaughter them. It did not take long to convince the British public that the best beef in the world is the American range steer raised on grass and quickly fattened on corn. No other beef is its equal for tenderness and juiciness.

When the Britons got over their prejudice against American beef, there was an immediate return to the old system of slaughtering in this country and shipping the refrigerated meat across the Atlantic. By this method the beef was got to market in better condition than by shipping the live cattle and could be sold at lower prices. England came to look more and more to the United States for her beef supply instead of to Australia and the Argentine. The voyage from Australia is so long and the beef from South America so inferior that the American product commanded the field.

But our British friends are now growling fiercely at the American cattle shippers again. This time the complaint is not about inferior beef and low prices, but scarcity and high prices. The "blasted Hamericans" are accused of putting up the price on Cousin John Bull and Cousin John, true to his national habit of making a roar every time things don't go to suit him, has put a piece in the paper—in fact, has put pieces in all the papers—expressive of his disapproval of this latest "Yankee trick." He calls all the world to witness that he is being ill-used and overcharged. It does not occur to him that he needn't buy the goods if he doesn't like the price. He proposes to have prices fixed more to his notion by appealing to Parliament. The government is to be questioned about this nefarious business in open Parliament. This is a very dreadful thing to the British mind. It is supposed to make all the world stand aghast. Writing to the papers is tame compared to it. When the ministry is questioned from the government benches, the Yankee butchers are expected to shiver for their lives. When the Baron of Sheppy called for his boots every caitiff in the castle shook in his shoes. An inquiry in Parliament is supposed to have much the same effect on the outside world that the doughty Sir Robert's call for his boots had upon his vassals. No doubt there will be high old doings.

But our British friends can easily find out that the American slaughterers are charging their own countrymen very stiff figures for meat. Beef was never so dear in the American markets, and beef cattle were never so scarce nor so high. One of the effects of the South African war was to create an extraordinary demand for American beef. The British troops in the field were fed on American meats, packed in Chicago and Kansas City, and our English cousins may console themselves when they are charged fancy prices for steaks that they are contributing to the expense of putting down the Boers. But they will find that the American Meat Trust is a harder horse to curry than Old Man Krueger and his Dutch burghers. However, the British have our sympathy in their war with Armour, Swift and Cudahy.

ENDORSE ROOSEVELT.

Iowa follows the lead of Nebraska, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Wisconsin, Indiana and Missouri in endorsing President Roosevelt. This points out the way to California Republicans. Out here we cordially approve of the general policy of the Administration. We disagree with the President's views about Cuban reciprocity, but that is a mere detail which Congress has yet to settle. In all other respects President Roosevelt is in accord with Republican sentiment on the Pacific Coast. Therefore, the Sacramento convention should give him as hearty an endorsement as the language affords. He has shown himself to be a fearless and capable executive, whose honesty of intention and patriotism of motive cannot be questioned. His policy is admirable and his personality striking and lovable. He is a leader who not only commands loyalty and confidence, but inspires affection and enthusiasm. One of his most admirable traits is his keen sense of justice. But the people love him for his intense Americanism and his devotion to the principles on which this republic was founded and which are the common heritage of men of all parties. He is especially entitled to the support and endorsement of Californians because he is a champion of the West, a believer in Western ideas and Western progress. He is one of our folks, so to speak, and we must speak for him as such.

The dispatches say that Joseph Chamberlain is very sick, but he seems well enough to give Premier Balfour trouble. It is given out that Chamberlain advocated the selection of Balfour as Salisbury's successor, but it is to be observed that an agitation has already begun for the displacement of the Tory chief by the recanting radical of Birmingham. If Chamberlain is not trying to obtain the leadership of the Torey party by the same methods which gave Disraeli his dominance, all signs fail. Disraeli graduated at the head of Torey statesmen after being the wildest radical in the House of Commons. Chamberlain began as an aggressive follower of John Bright and has become the most pronounced exponent of the traditional Torey imperial policy in all Britain.

FREE MAIL DELIVERY.

One of the unforseen results of free mail delivery in the rural districts is to injure the business of the local stores. Shopping by mail has enormously increased under the system and threatens to increase still more rapidly. The big department stores in the cities send out price lists to people in the country, and fill the orders sent in by mail as promptly and satisfactorily as if the customer made his purchase at the counter. The rural storekeepers cannot compete in prices and can present no such a variety of stock to choose from. Hence he sits idly in his doorway while he watches the postman take the business that was once his off to the big city where a strange elephant covorts in curious jungles designated as the "tenderloin" and the "red light district." This state of affairs has stirred the rural merchants to resistance.

Oddly enough the greatest outcry comes from New England, where the rural free mail delivery idea was born and where the system was first received with the greatest favor. At first the complaints of the local business men were not received with much favor, but gradually the effects of the system began to be felt in various directions. The decline of business in the rural towns affected the local produce markets; the taverns had fewer guests, and there was less doing in all lines than formerly. The farmers who rejoiced in getting their papers and magazines delivered at their doors, "jist like city folks," discovered that there was not such a ready sale for eggs, butter, poultry and garden truck in the village. When they asked what the trouble was the local merchant and the hotel keeper told them with the directness of speech characteristic of the country that the free mail delivery was at the bottom of it. They informed the farmers in picturesque vernacular that they had better send their butter and eggs to market through the mails, the way their wives and daughters get their corsets, underwear and family linen.

If there is anything that impresses the rural mind it is an object lesson that affects the price of produce, and the object lesson afforded in this instance speedily caused the conviction that free mail delivery is an invention devised by city chaps to bunco the country people. There is in consequence a lively agitation against the system. There is no likelihood, however, that free mail delivery will be abolished. Every material change causes other changes. The universal law of compensation decrees this, and rural society will have to adapt itself to whatever changes in conditions free mail delivery brings. It was affected the same way when machinery made useless the spinning wheel and the hand loom. It felt the same effect when the railway forced the stage coach and freight wagon out of business. The same complaint is heard when each change is wrought, but progress never pauses because somebody falls under the wheels at every advance.

While we are harmonizing in politics, let us harmonize on the question of public improvements.

Free Lecture System.

"The free lecture system of New York city" is what the leading system of adult education in the metropolis is called. It has been and is an attempt to apply university extension methods to the masses of a great city. The Legislature provided for the movement in 1888, and for two winters the lectures were under the supervision of the committee on evening schools. In the first season 186 lectures were given with an average attendance of 115. In the next season 329 lectures were given, but the average attendance was only 81, says the World's Work. When it was that there was called in to take special charge of this work a man with a gift of organization and a keen sympathy for the masses in addition to a practical knowledge of what was suited to them intellectually. He was Dr. Henry M. Leipziger, and he has been in charge of the system ever since. In the first year he raised the attendance 50,000.

Statistics are available for the thirteenth season of the work, although at this writing the season is closing for the fourteenth. The figures show that in the 1901 season 1,382 lectures were given and that a total of 553,000 persons listened to them, which means an average attendance of nearly 300 persons to the lectures.

THREE WEDDINGS THE RECORD FOR ONE EVENING.

Miss Jennie Allen Weds Owen Corrigan—Two Social Events in Alameda—Personal Mention.

The wedding of Miss Jennie Allen and Owen Eugene Corrigan which took place in the Church of the Immaculate Conception last night was an interesting social affair.

The bride is a sister of District Attorney J. J. Allen, and through her long connection with the School Department of this city is herself well known. Both bride and groom are natives of Oakland and received their education here. Mr. Corrigan being a graduate of St. Mary's College and the bride an alumni of Sacred Heart College. The groom is well-known in railroad circles, being connected with the maintenance and way department of the Southern Pacific Company.

The church was prettily decorated and was well filled with the many friends of the happy couple.

The wedding march and appropriate music during the ceremony were rendered by the complete church choir, under the direction of Professor A. Gregory.

The bride was given away by her brother, Judge Allen. Her gown was a beautiful confection of white satin-striped grenadine, shirred over and underdress of heavy white satin. The edge of the skirt was finished with a soft, full ruching. A veil was worn and the shower bouquet was of bride roses. The only ornament worn was a gift from the groom, a brooch of pearls and diamonds. Miss Carmel Martinez was maid of honor and wore a very pretty gown of pink mouseline de doie over pink silk and carried a large bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Agnes Thompson and Miss Anna Burns, were gowned alike in white mouseline de soie over white silk, and both carried white carnations. Little Alice Palmer, in a dainty frock of white point d'esprit over white silk, bore the ring to the altar on a cushion of white satin.

The groom was attended by Dr. B. McElroy of San Francisco. The marriage service was read by the Rev. F. X. Morrison. Theodore Martinez and Dr. Giannini were ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's mother on Chestnut street, where a wedding supper was also served. Only the family and immediate friends were present at the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Corrigan will make a tour of Southern California during their honeymoon, and on their return will reside at 1211 Chestnut street.

AN ALAMEDA WEDDING.

Miss Alveina Hasselbeck and Frank J. Miller were married in Alameda last night. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock at the home of the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Magill, Jr., 1914 Clement avenue. Rev. O. E. Hotle, pastor of the Eighth Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church of East Oakland, officiated.

The bride was attended as bridesmaid by her sister, Miss Frieda Hasselbeck, and the best man was Wallace Adams, of East Oakland. The residence was artistically decorated in honor of the event. The reception hall was in red and the parlors in pink and green, with a profusion of palms and flowers. The bride's gown was of white organdie over white silk. The ceremony was performed while those participating stood beneath a floral wedding bell.

After a reception and congratulations a wedding supper was served within a pavilion erected in the garden. The couple received many handsome and valuable wedding presents. Mr. and Mrs. Miller left to spend their honeymoon in the south, and upon their return will reside in East Oakland.

WHITE AND GREEN WEDDING.

At a pretty white and green wedding celebrated at half past 7 o'clock last night at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Leclerc, 2219 Railroad avenue, Alameda, Miss Rena S. Herold became the bride of Emile E. Leclerc. The Rev. T. J. O'Connell of St. Joseph's Church performed the marriage ceremony.

Miss Alice Leclerc, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and George Herold, brother of the bride, was best man. Ferns and bamboo were elaborately utilized in the decorations of the parlor, where the words that made the bridal pair one were pronounced. The bride's dress was of blue silk, trimmed with white applique lace. Only relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties witnessed the nuptial ceremony and attended the reception and banquet that followed. Many beautiful and appropriate presents were received by the couple.

Mr. Leclerc is one of Alameda's energetic young business men and is a member of the firm of Leclerc & James. He has resided here since childhood and numbers his friends by scores. His bride is a social favorite.

CROWS AND SCARECROWS.

Experiments Going to Show That Crows Can Count to 7 in Men and 3 in Women.

Careful experiments conducted for many years have proved that three women will scare a Maine crow as much as seven men. The man who proved this fact to the satisfaction of his neighbors and the world was Cap'n John Odom, who was keeper of Fort Point light under the Buchanan administration. As it was impossible for a man to live and support a family on $540 a year, the captain planted a wide area of corn back from the lighthouse. As soon as the blades were above ground the crows laid claim to the lot. So Cap'n Odom built a brush camp in the middle of his field, and for a long time studied the ways of crows, hoping thereby to help himself and other men who were afflicted by crows.

The first morning at daylight two men went to the camp. After half an hour one of them came away. The crows had watched the going and coming, and though they could not see the man in the brush camp they knew he was there. So long as he remained not a bird alighted near the corn. On the following morning three men entered the camp, two coming out and going about their work after a seasonable wait. Again the crows performed an operation in simple substraction, taking two from three, and shunned the corn lot.

In this way the captain kept on increasing his men from day to day until eight men went into camp one morning and seven departed later on. No sooner had they quit than every crow in sight was among his corn rows pulling the grain and giving the man on watch a chance to shoot three of them.

Having demonstrated that a crow could count as far as seven, but was incapable of comprehending the meaning of eight, Cap'n Odom tested their abilities upon women. In a similar manner he learned that three women could be compressed within the compass of a crow's brain, but the fourth was uncountable. Since then scores of experiments along these lines have been made, and the results have never varied a unit.

For nearly half a century Cap'n Odom's discovery has been known, but until John Hughes of this village began to construct scarecrows in female garments last week, nobody has been sensible enough to take advantage of a scientific fact. Mr. Hughes is a practical farmer who hopes to die rich if he lives long enough. The life of an average scarecrow in a Maine cornfield is three years, though a few survive for four or five years if they are housed as soon as the corn is too big for the crows to pull.

In looking over his stock late in May Mr. Hughes learned that in order to protect his fields properly he must secure the services of six able-bodied scarecrows, of which number he had only two on hand. The price of hemlock overall stuff of which scarecrow garments are made, has advanced 40 per cent within a year, and when Mr. Hughes contemplated the purchasing of four full suits of clothing at one time he felt as if the outlay would make a big hole in his prospective profits from growing corn. Then he remembered the original investigations into the subject made by Cap'n Odom and made up his mind to take the risk.

Unbleached cotton cloth is still cheap at the country stores. Of course, no man of sense would consent to have a member of his family go out to the open fields by the highway and expose herself in no warmer garments than cotton sheeting. The June mornings are cool, and the fabric is not of a kind that a woman of good taste would select. But money was not plentiful, and so long as he could scare the crows away as cheaply as possible, Mr. Hughes was willing to risk the scandal which would be created by strangers mistaking his female scarecrows for members of his household.

By the middle of June he had fixed up two very Amazonian females and placed them on guard. After that a heavy rain compelled him to spend a week in his meadows ditching lowlands. By the time he was at leisure to visit his cornfield he was afraid the crows had discovered how badly his crop was protected, and had lifted most of the spears which were above ground. His surprise and joy were unbounded when, on visiting the place, he found that the crop was untouched. Not only had two female scarecrows performed the duties of six male, but they had labored so well that when the crows were compelled to cross his farm they made a wide detour, even when they were flying so high as to be above gunshot.

Having assured himself that everything was safe, Mr. Hughes rushed to the house and told his wife that he had discovered a new occupation for the new woman. When she asked him to explain he shouted:

"Scarecrows!" — Letter from Orono, Me., in the New York Sun.

Edison Invented to Get Even.

It was anger, said Thomas A. Edison to a friend recently, that first impelled him toward the invention of the incandescent light.

It was in his earliest days, when Edison was the inventor we read about — poor, enthusiastic, never-sleeping. He occupied a mere hovel with his apparatus. All his money went for his experiments. Suddenly one day he faced a crisis with the gas collector. The man had been to the house often, but Edison, hardly heeding his business, waved him away, saying:

"Don't bother me."

But the last call of the collector came. His instruction was peremptory. He must turn off the gas.

"But, man," said Edison, "I can't quit this experiment tonight. I'll pay the bill. I'll telephone to the office—anything. I must finish this work tonight."

The man was a gas collector. The lights went out.

"That night, as I sat in the darkness," said the inventor, "I swore I would make an electric light that would ruin the gas companies."—New York World.

CARNIVAL WILL BE A SUCCESS.

ALAMEDA PEOPLE TAKING A GREAT INTEREST IN THE BIG SEPTEMBER SHOW.

ALAMEDA, July 31.—A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Alameda Water Carnival was held last night at the City Hall. Aside from the Committee there was present nearly one hundred spectators.

The meeting opened with a lively discussion as to the manner of selecting a carnival queen. The proposition of printing coupons in the daily papers was given up and the Committee decided to have canvassers sell coupons about the city.

On the tickets, or coupons, the purchaser will write the name of his candidate for queen and deposit the same in one of the many ballot boxes that will be placed about the city.

The Committee also decided to have a concession which will be handled on a flat vote proposition, no percentage of their gain being required.

Mr. Bell then spoke on the necessity of getting together enough money to carry out the carnival with success. He said that it was time to think of the financial end and proposed that a purse be opened at once. Before many minutes $350 was pledged. It was also arranged that the Ways and Means Committee will shortly make a canvass of the city to get together a sufficient amount of money to conduct the Carnival.

It was finally decided that the carnival will be held on September 15 and 16 with two nights on the water. The California Yacht Club and Oakland Canoe Club will be requested to participate in the carnival and the Park street bridge will be opened during the water parades.

Souvenir buttons and ribbons will be made at once. The ribbons will be presented to all the school children and it is the intention of the committee to have the ribbons ready to give out to the school children next Monday when the schools open.

B. Foye, a prominent Redman, announced that he would have one hundred Redmen in full regalia to assist in the band parade. Other officers were made but no definite action was taken as the parade is in charge of a special committee of which E. K. Taylor is chairman.

It was announced that the executive committee will meet every night at the Board of Trade Rooms, where the various committees will report and receive instructions.

HE SAID HIS WIFE WAS DEAD.

SHE HAD HUSBAND ARRESTED TO PROVE THAT SHE IS ALIVE.

"I had my husband arrested because he said I was dead," said Mrs. Frank Josephs this morning.

"He has deserted me and has not given one cent for the support of his children. He went to Reno, Nevada, and was seen going around with well dressed women and appeared to have plenty of money to spend.

"A friend of mine asked him if he was not married to a Portuguese girl in Oakland. He said that he was at one time but she died.

"Now I want my friends to know that I am not dead and I will show Mr. Josephs that I am very much alive. I want him to support his children and I will prosecute until he does his duty."

The trial of Josephs has been set for August 21.

Josephs pleaded not guilty to the charge. He did not demand a jury trial. His wife alleges that he left the State to avoid the payment of $40 per month for the maintenance of herself and children.

CUTTING THE KEY LOG.

A Story of Heroic Self-Sacrifice in Releasing the Victim of a Log Jam.

The logs heaped upon themselves, wedged and ground into one another in what seemed to be an inextricable mass. A few individual logs were drawn out with the rope and horses, but the other logs only seemed to groan, make a little move, and pack the closer. One, two, three, four days they all worked and failed. The water had risen considerably because of the jam and was forcing other logs back against the banks above the falls.

Almost distracted with his perplexity, Mr. George was carefully examining this backward action, when the logs under him made a move, dropping him into the water, and pinning him at the thigh between the logs and the rocky shore. It looked as if his legs would be crushed—such was the backward force of the water and logs. Alarm was sounded. Men tried to force the logs back and get the young master out, but in vain. A rope was tied around his waist, and they tried to draw him out, but that also was in vain.

The foreman, who had been making a new and careful survey of the jam, came up to report to Mr. George that he had found the key log, and that there was no other way in which to break the jam than by getting that log out, or by having some one go out over the falls, in front of that mighty mass of timber, and accumulated water, and cut that log. But he found his young master pinned by the logs and unconscious with pain.

He called some of his men for consultation. They all agreed that the only way to break the jam and free their master was to get that key log started or broken. To this log the rope was fastened, and with horses and men another effort was made to extricate it; but it would not move. The foreman seized an axe, and started for the log.

"Boys," said he, "look after Mr. George. When the logs move, drag him out quickly at all hazards. If I am killed, give him my respects."

And the noble, stalwart man, nimble as a cat, ran over the logs and began chopping the key log in two. There were men on the bank ready to help him if he could be helped. Swiftly the big chips flew. Suddenly, with a growl, a crash, a thundering roar, the jam broke, and ere the brave man could reach the shore it carried him among the tumbling logs and seething waters to an untimely end. At the first movement of the jam the logs that pinned the master were loosened and he was dragged up and laid on the bank, bruised, but with no bones broken. It was not, however, till after four day's search that the body of the brave foreman was found, and then it was an almost unrecognizable mass of pounded flesh and broken bones.—Christian Endeavor World.

SMALL BOYS START OUT ON A TOUR

James O'Kane, who modestly confesses to nine tender springs, and Oscar Olsen, who with equal modesty admits to ten summers, wandered from their parental roofs in Santa Clara yesterday morning and landed in Oakland last night, being the first stopping place of a long-contemplated tour of the world.

Their diminutive size, and unsophisticated looks, however, betrayed them to the police and they were lodged in city prison last night as runaways.

"We did not steal anything," protested the youths, "Why should they arrest us?"

The Chief of Police is allowing the boys to ponder on this question and in the meantime is in communication with the parents of the boys.

DIVORCE SUIT LASTED TWELVE YEARS.

Mrs. Sarah Virginia Sewers of Baltimore has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, James E. Sewers. The bill in the case was filed twelve years ago, on January 24, 1890, and in regard to this fact Mrs. Sewers testified before the examiner that she employed Charles Skinner, an attorney, to take charge of her case for her and procure a divorce for her.

It happened that Mr. Skinner's name does not appear on the court records in the case at all, and the bill of complaint was entered over the name of Charles S. Wilson, attorney, who appeared for the petitioner throughout the case. Mrs. Sewers testified that she had never seen Wilson and did not even known who he was.—New York World.

HOW THE STUDENTS LIVE IN THE COLLEGE TOWN.

Growth in Number of Student Clubs---Live in Berkeley in Preference to the Bay Cities.

BERKELEY, July 31.—Interesting statistics have recently been completed at the State University concerning the way in which the students of the institution live, and the places at which they board. The statistics are peculiarly interesting inasmuch as the University of California is without dormitories, and the students are thrown entirely upon their own responsibility as to where and how they shall live.

The most significant feature of the statistical statement is the tendency to be noted toward grouping on the part of the students into fraternities, sororities and club houses. Although with the increase in the number of students attending the University there has been an absolute increase in the number living in private families and large boarding houses, yet this increase is relatively much smaller than that of those living in student clubs and fraternities. The tendency is interesting as it denotes a partial duplication in California of the dormitory system, with the important exception, however, that the fraternities and clubs are entirely free from faculty control.

This tendency on the part of the students to thus group themselves together in houses under their own management and control can be clearly seen when a comparison in the number of such organizations now existing with that of previous years is made. At the present time there are nineteen Greek letter fraternities in Berkeley, and of sororities. Two years ago there were but fifteen fraternities and four sororities. In connection with this it must be noted that within the past two years at least seven eating clubs have been organized in Berkeley, thus making a total increase of fourteen in the number of student boarding societies.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the development in this direction is the growth in the number of student clubs, which are organized for the sake of economy on a co-operative plan. At present there are nine such organizations in college, seven for men students and two for women. The cost of living varies between $8 and $18 per month, the average being about $12. The students rent a house, employ a well-ordered household. The actual cost is divided at the end of each month among the members of the club, and payment made upon this basis.

The names of the student clubs are: Abracadakra, Bachelerdon, Valhalia, Dwight Way, La Junta, Recessus Sanctorum, Ridge Road, Pie Del Monte, and Eervah. The latter two are women's clubs and were organized by Mrs. Phoebe Hearst.

Another tendency which has been quite marked within the past two years is that of the students to live in Berkeley in preference to the other bay cities. This can be partly accounted for by the fact that the percentage of students from counties other than San Francisco and Alameda, is constantly increasing and these students of necessity must live in Berkeley. At the same time, acting upon the outspoken advice of President Wheeler and other members of the Faculty, many students whose homes are in Oakland, Alameda and San Francisco are now living in Berkeley in order to get more of the collegiate life.

SILVA'S DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

The verdict of the Coroner's jury relative to the death of J. J. Silva, the watchman whose body was found in the waters of the bay on Monday last, was that the deceased had come to his death accidentally.

Julius Gomez, an intimate friend of the deceased, gave the most important testimony. While going to the shop where Silva was employed, on Sunday evening, Gomez says he thought he saw the body of a man fall overboard. A diligent search was made for Silva on the ship, but it proved unavailing. The body was recovered from the water the next day.

Assistant District Attorney Samuels and Detective Holland were present at the inquest to hear the testimony as to foul play, which was at first suspected.

LARGE FACTORY WANTS LOCATION

EASTERN CONCERN MAKES SEARCHING INQUIRIES RELATIVE TO OAKLAND'S ADVANTAGES.

The Board of Trade is in receipt of a letter of inquiry from one of the largest enamel bath and tub factories in the East, asking many questions relative to the manufacturing facilities of Oakland.

The inquiries are very specific as to railroad advantages, the location of Oakland harbor facilities and other material conditions essential to commercial success.

The Eastern people state they are desirous of establishing a factory here containing two floors of 3000 square feet.

The firm has been engaged in an extensive business at Romulus, Michigan, but intimates that cheap fuel and a close proximity to Oriental trade are factors which will have much to do in influencing them to come West.

This is the second inquiry of the same nature received by the Board of Trade.

As Oakland is the terminal of two great railroads and has unexcelled harbor facilities it is not improbable that the Easterners can be induced to locate here.

WHAT THE REVENUE REPORT SHOWS

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has prepared the annual preliminary report of the operations of his bureau for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902. OFFICIALS CHANGE ON OAKLAND TRANSIT LINE.

New Men in Advanced Positions Because of the Retirement of Ex-Superintendent S. B. M'Lenegan.

ELMHURST, July 31.—It has just been learned that on and after the 1st of August, the following important changes will be in force on the lines of the Oakland Tranist Company: J. P. Potter, former superintendent of the Western Division, will be superintendent of the entire system; A. H. Smith, former superintendent of construction, will be assistant superintendent of all the lines; E. E. Thornton, former inspector on the Alameda Division, will be superintendent of the Haywards Division; while C. O. Piper, former inspector on the Telegraph line, will be superintendent of that division.

These changes were made upon the resignation of ex-Superintendent S. B. McLenegen of the Eastern Division, whose work will now be divided between Assistant Superintendent Smith and Superintendent Thornton of the Hayards Division. The new regime does away with the offices of superintendents of the Eastern and Western Division, and leaves the control of the entire system practically in the hands of Superintendent Potter.

In regard to the change, the men are well pleased in each case but that of A. H. Smith. The circulation of a petition some time ago, stating the objections of the men towards Smith is evidence of their feelings in his case. The petition has not yet been presented to the company, and it is not known what action will be taken in the matter.

DEWEY PLAY A LARGE SUCCESS.

POPULAR PLAYHOUSE CROWDED TO THE DOORS EVERY NIGHT.

The performance at the Dewey this week will delight all kinds of theatergoers. There is enough of melodrama in both the pieces on the program to entertain the gallery, and that part of the house, by the way, is as well patronized as ever.

There is at the same time in the pieces enough of the sentimental to cause them to be highly prized by lovers young and old. The auditorium last week and thus far this week has been filled with lovers, who have been drawn thither by the love episodes which have characterized the pieces.

The present plays not only attract lovers of the present generation, but those of years agone, who feel a re-kindling of the old flame under the masterful influence of the actors upon the stage.

The play "Paris in 1793" is not a tale of blood, but rather of the tender passion. "David Garrick," the other piece, is a classic of the romantic order, and people who wish to pass a quiet evening in witnessing clean and inspiring plays should not miss the opportunity afforded them this week by the Dewey management.

Dobert Downing, the eminent actor, Landers Stevens, Fanny Gillette and all the other members of the Stevens Stock Company are in the cast.

CLEW TO THE POSTAL ROBBERS

HORSE AND WAGON STOLEN BY POSTOFFICE ROBBERS IS RECOVERED.

The white horse and the spring wagon stolen from Joseph Sunderer, of Mission San Jose by the fellows who burglarized the postoffices at Mission San Jose, Centerville and Warm Springs, last Monday night, have at length been found.

The animal, with the wagon attached was discovered this morning tied to a post at the Ashland House on the San Leandro road, a couple of miles west of Haywards and a short distance from San Lorenzo Junction.

The news of the discovery reached the sheriff's office, and immediately a telephone message was sent to Joseph Sunderer, the owner of the outfit at Mission San Jose, to call and get his property.

The horse was tied to the post early Tuesday morning. It was noticed by the proprietors of the Ashland House but no attention was paid to it during the day because the hotel people felt that the animal was owned by somebody who was transacting business in the neighborhood.

When night came on, however, and the property was not claimed by any person, the horse was given food and shelter in the hotel barn.

Yesterday, nobody called either to claim the rig, somewhat to the surprise of the hotel people.

In the evening, however, they read that the unclaimed property belonged to Mr. Sunderer and that it had been used to facilitate the escape of the burglars referred to.

No delay was, therefore, permitted in the matter of bringing the whereabouts of the missing outfit to the attention of the Sheriff.

The finding of the horse and wagon bears out the prophecy of Sheriff Rogers, who, speaking on the subject today, said:

"This finding is in keeping with my theory of the burglars. I felt that the horse and wagon would be found. The burglars took the shortest road to the railroad. There was no train to be had on the steam road, so the fellows drove probably through San Lorenzo or on a neighboring road and tied the horse where the animal was found. They then took the first car on the Oakland, San Leandro and Haywards electric road and went to San Francisco. There is no clew as to who they are. The only way they may be identified may be by finding them with the stolen stamps in their possession."

Deputy Sheriff George Wales is still patrolling the country in the vicinity of the towns the Postoffices of which were looted in search of the burglars.

An impression obtains that the burglaries were not committed by men who make a business of burglarizing for a living. This is based upon the fact that extreme familiarity was shown with all the premises robbed, especially the place from which the horse and wagon were stolen. Strangers could not have performed the work without previous survey of the ground, and such a survey would have attracted attention to them and caused them to be suspected.

The officers are now looking for residents of the vicinity of the robbery whose absence for a few days may be the cause of investigation.

REV. ADAMS TO PRACTICE LAW.

HE EXPECTS TO OPEN AN OFFICE IN SAN FRANCISCO SHORTLY.

After having disgraced the clerical profession, murdered his best friend, escaped the penalty of his crime by being adjudged insane, spending a short term in the insane asylum at Agnews and, a short time ago, being discharged from there as sane, Rev. Charles G. Adams, late of Berkeley, is now preparing to enter upon the practice of the law in San Francisco.

Such was the information conveyed to Attorney Lin Church of the firm of Snook & Church, who defended the reverend accused gentleman, this morning at the Court House, while Mr. Church was in the company of a number of brother attorneys.

The man slain by Adams was Dr. Jessup, a well known dentist of Berkeley, who was shot and killed while he was attempting to save Adams' daughter from the cruelty of her father.

LARGEST TREE IN THE WORLD.

IT HAS BEEN DISCOVERED IN THE CONVERSE BASIN IN THE SIERRAS.

FRESNO, July 31.—What undoubtedly is the largest known tree in the world has been recently discovered two and one half miles from the Sanger Lumber Company's mill at Converse Basin, far up in the Sierras, in this county.

The discovery was made by a party of hunters, but little credence was given to the report, as every one thought the description of this colossus of the forest was exaggerated, but it has since been visited by people who have verified the finder's statement.

The monster was measured six feet from the ground, and it took a line 154 feet and 8 inches long to encircle it, making it over fifty-one feet in diameter. This tree is a few rods from the company's boundary line and is on the government reserve, hence will stand to interest sightseers and will escape the woodman's axe.

WANTS TO STOP CORNER IN OATS.

CHICAGO JUDGE HAS MODIFIED HIS INJUNCTION IN CASE.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Judge Chytraus today modified the injunction issued yesterday restraining the Chicago Board of Trade operators, James A. Patten, Carrington, Patten & Company, Bartlett, Frazier & Company, from conducting a corner in July standard oats, by restraining the defendants from asking the President of the Board of Trade to endorse margins deposited by the complainants, Waite, Thoburn & Company, to secure 55,000 bushels of short sales. The court held a session before the opening hour of the Board of Trade, in order that a decision might be arrived at before business was begun. A motion for a dissolution of the case will come up for further adjustification next week.

The effect of the action of the court is for time to protect the complaints against any alleged corner and is construed as working against the bull clique of operators on the board.

Argument was brought to bear by attorneys for the board and for the defendant operators that in asmuch that both the complainants and the defendants were members of a tribunal that adjudicated any controversies between its members, the injunction should be dissolved on the ground of want of jurisdiction. It was argued that the complainants were premature in asking for an injunction against a corner when no such corner was in effect, and when the Board of Trade rules specifically prohibits corners.

The defendant members of the Board of Trade, in answer to the injunction, denied the affirmation that July standard oats were worth not in excess of 35 cents a bushel and said they were worth more than that price. It was set forth that the elevator accommodation and railway of Chicago were such that they would allow of delivery of fifteen times the amount of oats bought of Waite, Thoburn & Co. by the defendants, and that recently the defendants had bought ten times as much as their total purchases in this delivery. Following are the purchases made in July standard oats by the bull clique, as set forth in their affidavit:

Bartlett, Frazier & Co., 900,000 bushels; Carrington, Patton & Co., 100,000 bushels; James A. Patten, 80,000 bushels.

Attorney J. H. Monroe for the defendants, in addressing the court, made sharp allusions to the complainants having been of a speculative turn of mind and sold something they did not have and which they did not have the means of obtaining for delivery. He said it looked as if the complainants were trying to make money by buying in property at less price than that for which it had been sold.

Judge Chytraus, before modifying the order, told the attorneys he did not consider the injunction restrained the defendants from bidding, buying or selling or refusing to buy or sell July oats in the pit or from any of their accustomed business operations aside from those in connection with the complainants.

COMMERCE STREET IN A BAD WAY

Steps will probably be taken at once to repair the wooden sewer in Commerce street between East Twelfth and East Fourteenth streets. Superintendent of Streets Ott has been advised by Councilman Wixson, chairman of the Street Committee, to go ahead and do the work, as each day adds to the unsanitary condition of the neighborhood and to the difficulty of doing the work.

The wooden planks have rotted and it is feared that a small lake of sewage will collect at the mouth of the sewer and cause an endless amount of work to properly repair the sewer.

What the street needs is a new and modern sewer, to take the place of the wooden one. It is estimated that the $900 asked by the Board of Works will build at least 400 feet of the new sewer. Next year, after the tax levy, the work could be completed the entire length of the street.

MITCHELL TALKS OF THE RIOT.

HE REGRETS THAT THE LAW HAS BEEN VIOLATED BY ANY PERSON.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 31.—The riot at Shenandoah last night has had a depressing effect at strike headquarters.

All the local leaders of the United Mine Workers deplore the shedding of blood and the calling out of the troops. They say the presence of the soldiers will encourage the operators to start up their mines.

Local operators are of the opinion that the backbone of the strike is now broken and that it will only be a short time until there will be a general resumption of mining. National Board member John Fallon, who arrived at headquarters today, would not admit that the affair at Shenandoah would change the situation. He said the great bulk of the strikers were orderly and would continue peaceful and the operators could have little hope that their old employes would return to work.

President Mitchell issued the following statement:

"While I am not informed of the causes of the regrettable occurrence at Shenandoah and consequently not in a position to say whether the miners or the deputies are responsible for it, I am, nevertheless, much grieved to learn that this has been a serious violation of the law. I have repeatedly warned the miners that the person who violated the law was the worst enemy the strikers could have, and I have directed our local officers and committees to be constantly on the alert for any breach of peace. Our efforts in this direction will be redoubled and I trust that judgment will be withheld until the responsibility of the trouble at Shenandoah has been properly located.

(Signed.)

"JOHN MITCHELL,
"President United Mine Workers."

President Mitchell, at 10 o'clock received an official communication from the district headquarters of the United Mine Workers at Shamokin, which states that the situation at Shenandoah is not as bad as painted.

GAVE THEM A ROYAL RALLY.

HOW A NEWLY MARRIED COUPLE WERE ESCORTED OUT OF THE COURT HOUSE.

Oakland is looked upon by a number of amorous swains in various surrounding towns, and more especially, by those of San Francisco, as a kind of Gretna Green. It is not a Gretna Green such as used to figure in elopements. It is looked upon as a place where a marriage license may be taken out and then followed by the marriage of the lovers, without knowledge of friends until the newly-wed couple formally present themselves as mates for life.

There was a marriage here today of this kind, in which a courtroom was Cupid's bower, and Judge Larue impersonated Hymen.

It was a marriage in which George A. Merchant, who gave the age of 24 years, and whom the San Francisco directory says, is a policeman, was joined to Miss May M. Bannahan, whose age was given as 23 years. The couple was attended by a young lady and gentleman and, as soon as the license was issued, the quartet repaired to Judge Ellsworth's court room, under the guidance of Clerk Ray Baker. There Judge Larue tied the knot. The seekers after domestic bliss seemed to enjoy the transport of the moment and the attaches of the court house, under the leadership of Ray Baker and Leslie McKillican, felt it would be a shame to allow them to go back to San Francisco without at least some of the concomitants of a nuptials in the Athens of the Pacific.

Accordingly, clerks put up money and bought a basket of rice. As the bridal party descended the stairs to the lower floor, a shower of rice, to their surprise, descended upon them, and, at the same time Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" whistled by a chorus of clerks, greeted them. The whistlers said that had they known it in time, they would have hired a brass band for the occasion.

The courtesy of the Oaklanders in making up for the deficiency in the ceremony was appreciated by the San Franciscans, who left for home happy as lovers and larks.

HE KNEW THE JUDGE.

This morning Judge Melvin admitted to citizenship Jonathan Cosson, who was formerly a subject of King Edward VII. of England. Charles Pugh and James Glover acted as Casson's sponsors. The applicant was asked simply if he had read the Constitution of the United States. Casson replied that he had. The court thereupon stated that he knew sufficiently about Mr. Casson to know that the latter was qualified to be admitted to citizenship.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BROWNING.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES WERE HELD IN ALAMEDA THIS MORNING.

ALAMEDA, July 31.—Impressive funeral services were held this morning over the body of the late Mrs. Frances L. Browning, who was killed recently in a runaway accident at Coupeville, Washington.

The funeral was conducted under the auspices of Carita Chapter, No. 115, Order of the Eastern Star, of which the deceased was a member.

The officers of the lodge appeared in white instead of the conventional black and the ceremony was conducted in a simple and impressive manner.

Rev. L. Potter Hitchcock of the First Congregational Church preached the funeral sermon at 11 o'clock at Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Snow acted as organist, while Miss Florence H. Young and Edward A. Thornton sang a duet entitled "O Morning Land." Miss Young also sang a solo by Marston entitled "My God and Father."

Mr. Thornton sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," by Ambrose.

County Clerk F. C. Jordan, Chas. Pugh and H. S. Wilson were present on behalf of the County Clerk's office. They brought a handsome floral cross of white roses. The Boat Club sent a floral anchor, while many other beautiful floral pieces were received.

The pall bearers were: J. C. Bateman, J. B. Lanktree, Charles A. Brad, rd, George T. Morris, M. E. Gaines, E. D. Woodman.

After the ceremony the body was taken to Oakland, where it was cremated.

LOS ALAMOS IS DAMAGED

shock of earthquake occurred here at 1:20 o'clock this morning, followed at 1:40 o'clock by lighter shock. The first was as severe as the heaviest shock of Sunday night. Buildings rocked violently and people rushed from their homes in their night clothes.

The first shock lasted several seconds and a number of buildings that were damaged by Sunday night's shock, are on the verge of collapse. People remained on the streets all night, fearing to return to their houses.

RAILS ARE ALL RIGHT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Master of Transportation Richardson of the Southern Pacific Company stated to the Associated Press today that the seismic disturbances in Santa Barbara county had not destroyed any railroad property and that the tracks of his company were intact, all trains running on schedule time.

DESERTING HOMES.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 31.—The seismic disturbances at Los Alamos have continued during the morning, though none so severe as that at 2 o'clock. A severe quake was felt at 10 o'clock. The people refuse to enter their houses. A message from John S. Bell, owner of the Los Alamos rancho, states that the ranch house was seriously damaged by falling plaster, loss of china, etc. The oil wells at Careaga are believed to be uninjured. There have been no further shocks at Santa Barbara.

The people of Los Alamos are following the advice of President Wheeler of the University of California and are deserting their homes.

A number of families have left or are leaving today, going to Santa Maria, San Luis Obispo, Lompoc and Santa Barbara. The latest reports indicate that the damage was confined to the immediate vicinity of Los Alamos.

The northern end of the Los Alamos Valley in which the oil wells are located, felt the shock, but there was no loss of property. The same may be said of Santa Maria, Lompoc, Los Olivos, and other towns in the district. One estimate, that of Captain Harris, places the loss to buildings and contents in Los Alamos at ten or eleven thousand dollars.

THE LAST QUAKE.

The last quake during the morning was at 10:26. Between 7 and 7:30 there were seven distinct shocks and they were followed by others at intervals during the morning. The town of Los Alamos is about seventy-five miles northwest from Santa Barbara. A peculiarity of the disturbances is the limited area affected. Only two of the more severe quakes has been felt in Santa Barbara, and did absolutely no damage in this city. On this account there is no alarm here.

AT SANTA MARIA.

SANTA MARIA, Cal., July 31.—There was a recurrence of seismic disturbances at 1:15 a. m. The waves were slow and deliberate and accompanied by roaring noises. There was no damage in Santa Maria but the shock was very heavy, stopping many clocks.

At Guadaloupe clocks were stopped and it is reported that tremors occurred there for four hours continuously. At Lompoc the Hotel Arthur is all but gone. It is a brick building and the rear walls are cracked and chimneys tottering. Crockery and glassware were crumbled and broken.

SAN FRANCISCO BEAT ANGELS AT GOLDEN GATE.

Oakland Players Go to Sacramento----Fitzsimmons Will Appear at Central Theater.

The Ponies put a stop to Oscar Jones' winning streak at Golden Gate baseball park yesterday afternoon. They landed on his choicest curves for nine safe hits, and in the nine innings managed by clever work on the bases to turn five of the number into runs. Graphite Glendon, who handed out the puzzles for the Shetlands, was invincible. He was kind to the Angels in one inning only. That was number one. But after that he settled down to business, and the best the Seraphs could do was to fan the atmosphere or pop up easy ones in the air.

In the first inning Los Angeles through the courtesy of the black twirler managed to get men on all cushions. One of them scurried across the plate on Householder's singing two-bag swat over second, and that ended their run getting. Glendon settled down to business and was only located once after that.

It was in the fourth that the Ponies began to land on Oscar Jones. Leahy started the ball rolling by sending a hard drive down the third base line. Shugart bunted safely and Reilly, by placing one nicely, brought them both home. McHale's double past Jackson scored Joshua. In the eighth the Ponies annexed two more on Shay's three-bagger, Shugart's double to right, Reilly's single and a neat sacrifice by McHale. The score is as follows:

The Lohmanites open at Sacramento this afternoon in a five game series with the Senators. At San Francisco the Ponies and Angels are playing their second engagement.

At a meeting of the league magnates last night Eddie Householder was fined $100 for using profane language on the diamond at Sacramento. The accused man did not deny the charge, but insisted that the provocation was extreme.

It is reported that Nattress, the big infielder of the American Association, has accepted an offer from Manager Morley. Both the new pitchers signed by the southern manager are here and will show during the present series.

Pabst is coming on from Atlanta to cover first base and captain the Sacramento team. This means that Truck Eagan will be benched.

Harris has signed a new third baseman, but refuses to give out his name until he reaches the coast.

FITZSIMMONS WILL GO ON THE STAGE

CALLS ON THE MAYOR TO TALK OVER THE CHARGES OF FAKE.

Robert Fitzsimmons, accompanied by his trainer, George Dawson, called on Mayor Schmitz yesterday. Fitzsimmons explained that he wished to declare personally to the Mayor that the statements to the effect that the late exhibition was a fake were erroneous. He said he had struggled hard for victory, and that the charges against him went to his heart. Dawson also insisted that there had been no faking, and that the fight had been honestly contested.

In reply the Mayor assured Fitzsimmons that he would be glad to be convinced that there had been no prearrangement, but he reminded his visitors that the prediction made in advance had been verified by the result of the affair, and asked them what other conclusion was open to him, in view of all the circumstances.

Arrangements have been made with Fitzsimmons and his wife to appear in "The Honest Blacksmith" at the Central Theatre during the week of August 18th. This is the melodrama in which Fitzsimmons starred through the East a year or so ago. He will be supported by the Belasco and Thall stock company.

CLOSE SEASON FOR DEER WILL END

MANY HUNTERS WILL START OUT IN THE COUNTRY THIS AFTERNOON.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—With the break of dawn in California tomorrow morning will be removed the law that has since last October protected the deer and doves that home within the State, and sportsmen are already preparing to invade the woods, says the Examiner.

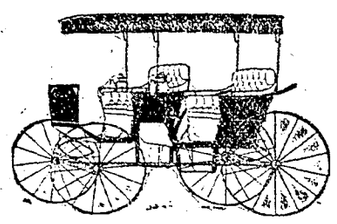

The exodus from this city for the big opening deer hunt will be made today. Most of the sportsmen will have for their destination the picturesque hills of Marin county. There, on the large preserves of the Country, Point Reyes and Tamalpais clubs, many deer have recently been seen, and much sport is anticipated.

About a dozen members of the Country Club will this afternoon leave on a special train. Among them will be Alex Hamilton, Robert Oxnard, Richard Sprague, E. F. Preston, Leroy Nichol, W. S. Kittle, G. F. Boyd and F. Van Sicklen.

The members of the Point Reyes Sportsmen's Club will turn out for a hunt on their south end preserve Friday. Those who will join in this hunt are John Gallagher, N. H. Hickman, G. W. Hinkel, F. S. Johnson, J. C. Lemmon, Ben Morgan, J. F. Nickels, Thomas Pennington, G. W. Pennington W. W. Richards, G. W. Smith, Fred Schmidt and H. C. Wyman.

From a temporary camp established on the hills on the grounds of the Tamalpais Gun Club, the following members will start on a hunt tomorrow morning: Achille Roos, Frank Lacoste, Dr. E. G. McConnell, William Brown, Henry Wagner, James F. Brownell and Charles Shaw.

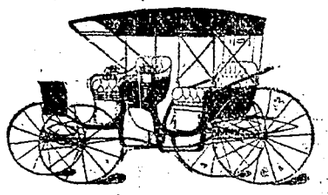

Male deer may be killed lawfully in the greater part of the State until October 1st. Doves may be shot until February 1st. In Marin county, however, the deer season will close September 15th.

A car of new Surries and Carriages just received. Prices and quality right.

INTERESTING EVENTS IN THE LOCAL LODGEROOMS.

Knights of Pythias Are Active--Good Work of Templars--Meetings of the Odd Fellows.

ORDER OF PENDO.

MacDonald Lodge, No. 166, O. of P., had a delightful meeting Monday evening, July 28.

Supreme Councilor A. P. Tugwell and wife, Supreme Treasurer O. S. Stanley and visitors from Oakland Council, No. 254, were present.

Three candidates were received and ten applications for membership were received. Three candidates had been obligated at a special meeting held July 25th.

A kind of revival has struck MacDonald Council, and there are surprises yet to follow.

After the business meeting refreshments were served by the committee in charge, Sister May Butler, Sister Laura Phipps and Sister L. Merrill.

Then followed dancing and singing. It was quite late before the members thought of going home.

The Order of Pendo has been very fortunate in securing Brother Fred Merrill for Alameda county. There are all kinds of plans on the tapis to make the meetings of the Pendo Councils interesting in the future.

MacDonald Council meets on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month at Gier's Hall, second floor.

Oakland Council, No. 254, meets on the first and third Monday evenings of each month at Gier's Hall.

TRIBE OF BEN HUR.

Oakland Court, No. 6, Tribe of Ben Hur, held its usual monthly initiation last Monday evening.

Five candidates were initiated by the degree team.

A. B. Ralston tendered his resignation as an officer of the court on account of business having called him away from Oakland for some time.

Dr. Joseph Montoux has not yet returned from his vacation.

Brother L. N. Petersen was reported as somewhat improved in health, but still confined to his home at Fruitvale.

ODD FELLOWS.

Harbor Lodge, No. 253, I. O. O. F., held a regular meeting on Wednesday evening, July 30, at which the second degree of Odd Fellowship was conferred upon a candidate of Elmhurst Lodge, No. 382; the work being witnessed by a large number of brothers from the various local lodges.

The entertainment committee reported progress.

OAKLAND LODGE.

Oakland Lodge, No. 118, I. O. O. F., will confer the first degree on Tuesday evening, August 5th. It is expected that a large attendance of members will be on hand.

Last Tuesday evening a very pleasant time was had after the routine work of the lodge was concluded. Almost every brother present had something to say along the line of what could be done to increase the enthusiasm of lodge meetings and bring about a fuller spirit of fraternity among the members. With a membership of something over 150 members, the lodge needs but a spark to revivify the old life of some years ago. On Friday of this week the initial work of the committee on paraphernalia will be done, and it will not be more than a few weeks before a new set of paraphernalia will be secured for the degrees.

The General Relief Board, I. O. O. F., will meet tomorrow (Friday) evening for the purpose of organization. This committee is composed of two members from each lodge in the city, and its duties are the care of the sick, helpless and unfortunate among Odd Fellows, members of outside lodges, are living in Oakland.

The new officers will be elected and the program for the new term will be mapped out.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Oakland Lodge, G. T., elected officers last Monday night and will install them next Monday.

The membership reached 100 and Miss Grace Cowan, who is chief templar of and an earnest and faithful worker in the Juvenile Temple, was the one hundredth member.

Several Oakland members will attend the installation of officers of Evening Star Lodge, 21 Eddy street, San Francisco, tomorrow evening.

There will be a large celebration August 11th in commemoration of the admission of women into the Order of Good Templars, at Foresters' Hall, San Francisco, under the auspices of the District Lodge, assisted by Oakland and San Francisco lodges. It will be a public meeting and everybody is invited.

In spite of the fact that a large number of members are absent on vacation, there were present Monday night thirty-nine members and eighteen visitors.

It is desired that a full attendance be present at the next meeting.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

At the regular weekly convention of Dirigo Lodge, No. 224, Knights of Pythias, held on Tuesday evening last in Pythian Castle, a great deal of important business was transacted and several applications for membership were received and acted upon.

A number of distinguished visiting knights were present, and the lodge was entertained by remarks from several of them, among others being Past Chancellor Richmond of Missouri, who made a most eloquent address. Brother Richmond leaves very shortly for China to take an important position with the Chinese Government. Brother Muller of Oakland also had something pleasant to say, and Past Chancellor Bouterious and Brother R. G. Smith entertained the lodge with vocal and instrumental music.

The membership of Dirigo is steadily increasing at the rate of from ten to twelve per month and the funds are in excellent condition.

Visiting brother knights are always sure of a hearty welcome.

TWO SILVER JUBILEES.

The silver anniversary of Pacific Lodge No. 7, A. O. U. W., which took place last Thursday evening, was a very successful affair, the hall being crowded to the doors by members of the lodge, their families and friends.

Master Workman Geo. A. Scott, presided and in a few words gave welcome to all to Pacific's silver anniversary.

He then introduced the speaker of the evening, Hon. W. H. Jordan, Past Supreme Master, and the first master workman of the lodge.

Brother Jordan described the organization of the lodge in old Masonic hall on Broadway on the evening of July 21st, 1877, referring to the men who were its first members, their trials, troubles and victories, and of the great amount of good that had been performed through the instrumentality of the lodge in the quarter century just passed, and the possibilities for the future. He called attention to the facts and figures which were noted in the short history of the lodge, which appeared in the program, showing that in death losses, sick benefits and charity over $160,000 had been disbursed since the institution of the lodge. The rest of the program consisted of a piano solo by W. J. Cook, vocal solo, C. H. Philbrick; cornet solo, M. E. Webb; soprano solo, Mrs. Eva Shory Corson; baritone solo, Geo. A. Hall; inonologue, Geo. P. Clark.

At the conclusion of the musical part of the program, the floor was cleared and dancing indulged until midnight.

On next Friday evening Occidental Lodge No. 6 of West Oakland, will observe their silver anniversary by a reunion and banquet at Fraternity hall on Peralta street, West Oakland.

Occidental and Pacific were organized the same week, and it was a race to see which should be No. 6, and Occidental won, but Pacific got ahead of them in celebrating the silver jubilee. A lot of the old-timers will get together Friday night and talk of old times.

PROTER LODGE I. O. O. F.

Wednesday evening, July 30, was a red letter night at Porter Lodge, No. 272, I. O. O. F. Porter Lodge was at home to its members, their families and friends. Loring Hall had been specially decorated for the event, and the program was very interesting. There was just enough of everything to please everybody. If you cared for dancing you had it. If refreshments were your long suit the inner man went away satisfied. And then there was present Grand Master M. C. Gill. And last, but not least, William H. Barnes, P. G. M., gave one of his most eloquent and witty addresses. The full program follows:

ORDER OF EAGLES.

Oakland Aerie, No. 7, Fraternal Order of Eagles, which was formerly Oakland Hospitium of the Bohemians of America, is fully organized and starts off in a very prosperous condition, having over three hundred charter members and a treasury of nearly $4,000.

Many new applications for membership are being received at each meeting, and at the last meeting a number of transfer cards were deposited with the local Aerie. The present officers of the Aerie are: Worthy past president, J. T. Heaney; president, Dr. H. B. Mehrmann;; vice president, Ed Weldler; chaplain, J. C. Williamson; secretary, Charles J. Harrington; financial secretary, William Raffetto; treasurer, William H. McDonald; conductor, M. A. Fitzpatrick; inside guardian, C. W. Denny; outside guardian, Frank H. Graham; physician, Dr. C. E. Curdts; board of trustees, C. W. Kohl, O. A. Smith and M. J. Hallahan.

About 250 members attended the last meeting, and many visiting brothers were present from different parts of the United States and Canada.

Brothers H. W. Pulcifer, William Belrose, Judge Mortimer Smith, Dr. G. G. Reinle and William H. Church were appointed a committee on by-laws.

Next Monday evening a very interesting meeting will be held, as a number of initiations will take place, and the members will be the guests of Brother Thomas Keyes, who will pay off his obligation to the Aerie, he having lost the title of heavy-weight of the Aerie.

Refreshments will be served and a good time will be had by all attending. Many visiting brothers from San Francisco will be present.

On Friday evening, August 8, the members of Oakland Aerie will, in a body, pay a fraternal visit to San Francisco Aerie, No. 5, and will be royally entertained. San Francisco Aerie, No. 5, has nearly 1,200 members.

DOWN AT THE MOLE

The Valuable Information Picked Up by a Representative When Last at the Ferry.

During the day the first time the reader is at the pier if he will take a look at the gentleman who works the hydraulic machine which raises and lowers the bridge he will notice a cap on his head bearing the legend "Gate Keeper." When the bridge is in position and he hears the gentleman, whose name is Mr. James Deal, residence 620 Fifth street, call out "This way for the Oakland train," the reader is respectfully asked to make a mental note of this fact, Mr. Deal emphatically endorses Doan's Kidney pills, as follows:

"For three years I was subject to attacks of backache, each successive attack laterly was of long duration and much more acute than its predecessor. Some of them lasted for three days at a time and although I knew from the backache and from the action of the kidney secretions that there was something radically wrong with my kidneys what to do to check the trouble let alone cure it was a mystery. Reading about Doan's Kidney pills induced me to try that remedy and my father went to the Owl Company's store for a box. It helped the last attack and I purchased a second. The aching ceased and the kidney secretions resumed their normal condition. This may be the means of relieving others in and around Oakland who are annoyed with kidney complaint and are at a loss to know what to do to get relief."

DEAL OF THE 'FRISCO ROAD.

HOW THE STOCK OF THE EASTERN ILLINOIS LINE WAS SECURED.

NEW YORK, July 31.—President Yoakum of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad has confided to his intimate friends, says the Herald, the purchase by his line of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois. Nothing bearing an official stamp, however, has been said as to the reasons for the acquisition of the property. The two roads do not connect at any point, and, according to practical railroad men, several hundred miles of construction work will have to be carried out by the big Southwestern before it will be able to reap the advantages which the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road can supply in the way of an entrance into Chicago.

When President Yoakum was seen at the Waldorf he refused to discuss the terms of the purchase and would neither confirm nor deny a report that the Illinois Central had practically concluded arrangements for the acquisition or lease of his system. "I am not ready to talk," he said.

When questioned as to the reasons of the acquisition of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, when his road is several hundred miles away from any point of connection, he laughed and said, "strange things happen, don't they?"

Of the terms by which the Eastern Illinois stock will be acquired by the 'Frisco, the Herald attributes to a director of the first-mentioned the statement that there had been no lease of the Eastern Illinois, but an actual sale. Each shareholder of the road will, he said, receive for 100 shares of common stock $25,000 in new 4 per cent collateral trust bonds of the 'Frisco, and which will be a direct obligation against it, standing ahead of all its stock. The terms upon which the preferred stock of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois will be exchanged are not announced.

In well-informed banking circles the intimations were quietly given, concludes the Herald, that the Illinois Central either will become the owner of the 'Frisco as a result of the present deal or will lease that property as a countermove against the aggressions of other interests in the South.

DEFENDS THE MOTIVES OF MODERN JOURNALISM.

Professor Scott of Michigan Comes to the Rescue of the Much-Abused Press.

BERKELEY, July 31.—Fred Melvin Scott, Professor of Rhetoric at the University of Michigan, delivered a most interesting lecture on Modern Journalism at 11 o'clock this morning before the students of the summer session of the State University. The lecture was especially interesting in that Professor Scott has made an especial study of journalism, both in regard to its past history and its present tendencies. Professor Scott's defense of the press is peculiarly apropose at this time, when it is encountering many critics who have nothing but condemnation for its methods, and can read no hope of advancement or improvement in its future.

Professor Scott said:

PROFESSOR SCOTT'S ADDRESS.

"All features of the newspaper may, I think, be brought under three heads: the editorial, the advertising, and news matter. And these three heads, as I have suggested, may, with propriety, be reduced to two, the advertising and the news, since as we have seen, the editorial, in so far as we can put confidence in it, is a kind of interview. And finally, since advertisements are a specie of news matter, all may well be included under the one common heading,—news. If we now ask again what is the office of the newspaper, I should reply, to give us the news, the whole news and nothing but the news.

WHAT REAL NEWS IS.

"But even were this answer accepted as satisfactory, we should still be compelled to ask, What do we mean by news? This is a dangerous question, because a knowledge of the significance of news has long been regarded as the private property of an elect few, a secret mystery revealed only to city editors and to reporters with 'noses,' and by them seen only as in a dream or a vision. I am willing enough to confess that the majority of people do not know news when they see it, but there is nothing mysterious about the article. News is simply the truth, or, if you like better, the facts of the world's forward movement, which comes to precisely the same thing. The real nature of the commodity has been disguised by the habit of speaking of items of news, or pieces of news, as though they could be picked up on the street like a pair of lost ear-rings. In the truest sense, however, there is no such thing as a piece of news that is news intrinsically and in its own right. There is only one great news, The life, the intelligence, of the world moves on all abreast. Photography, register that movement, and yet get all the news there is. Any part of aspect of that movement is news in virtue of its belonging to the whole. A high authority has given as his opinion that 'news is anything which occurs, everything of human interest, which is of sufficient importance to arrest or absorb the attention of the public, or any considerable portion of it.' But hundreds of false rumors, baseless scandals, law crimes, arrest and absorb the attention of the public.

"A stabbing affray in the slums, if carefully worked up with due attention to its realistic features, will arrest the attention of hundreds. We all know how much news of this sort is manufactured every day. And yet, save for a few words of interest to a few special readers, police officers and students of crime, such reports are not news. Real news gives up the meaning of life. It does not isolate an occurrence and treat it as though it stood outside the stream of human thought and action, and so give it a false glamor and an unhealthy fascination. That is to tear life asunder, to misrepresent it,to show us one red line instead of the whole variegated spectrum of life. Real news would give us the occurrence in all its relations and so in all its meaning.

"If the fact reported were a trivial fact, it would stand out in all its triviality and no rhetorical dressing would disguise it; if it were a glorious fact, it would shine forth in all its glory, and need no trippery of adjectives or interjections. If this conception of news prevailed, the search for it would become a genuine inquiry for the truth. The reporter would be the man who is in search of meaning. He would be a man who crushed the solid facts of life and made them render up their various significance. The real newspaper would be at once the register and the organ of the world's intelligence. Its aim would be the truth. Its whole business would be to report as accurately, as rapidly, as comprehensively, and as impartially as might be the significance of the world's daily life.

THE NEWSPAPER IDEAL.

"But doubtless some of you are saying. This is all an impracticable, Utopian fancy; and others are perhaps shaking their heads and murmuring, Would that we had a newspaper with such an aim and such an ideal, but it is impossible, absurd ever to hope for it in this wicked world. I think I shall be able to surprise both classes when I say that I think the aim of all newspapers that ever existed has been precisely this, that it is the goal toward which the newspapers of today are inevitably tending, and that it is an ideal which they are destined not many years hence to realize beyond the utmost expectations of any of you. If this is Utopian, make the most of it.

"When I say that newspapers are tending toward this high standard, I do not mean that any one paper or class of papers may be singled out as representing in itself the high-water mark of journalism. It is important that I should not be understood as meaning anything of the sort. Possibly some of the papers you might name as foremost in the movement I should consider hopelessly in the rear: and others which you regard as lowest in the scale, which you would exclude from the circle of the household as unclean and demoralizing, I should look upon as heralding a brighter era. What I mean is this, that if you look upon the newspaper press not as so many separate individual papers, but as a great and growing organism for the registering and communication of intelligence, if you inquire how that organism has developed and toward what end it is directed, you will find that on the whole there has been a great forward movement toward the goal which I have indicated, that is toward reporting as accurately, as rapidly, as comprehensively, and as impartially as may be the significance of the world's daily life. More than that, I think we shall find that many if not all the offensive features of modern journalism are in the main outcome of that same movement,—the growing-pains, so to speak, of that vigorous youngster, the newspaper press.

PROMOTES GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

"If we are to live up to the intelligence of our day and generation, where shall we get our knowledge? Something we can and do learn from our parents and our friends, much from the schools, much from the pulpit, and a great deal, though perhaps less than is generally supposed, from books. But I think it will be found, if we can examine the matter carefully that for the great bulk of the intelligence upon which we are to act in the various and complex relationships of life, we go to the agency which has done most to make them various and complex, that is, the newspaper. All our experience bears testimony to this fact. If we are away from civilization for a few days, how eagerly upon our return we rush to the files of the daily paper. We feel as if we had been out of the world, as indeed, we have. In the cases of some men, whose hands are on the helm of public affairs, men who must act with prompt intelligence or be dishonored, the loss of a single issue means temporarily incompetency. A few weeks of abstinence, and they would be unfitted for public life. Rob them of their paper for a year, and they would be hopelessly out of the race. In certain walks of life the dependence of conduct upon the newspaper is very plainly to be seen. Try to convince an enterprising dealer in grain that he can get his market reports out of a book published last month, or from his neighbor across the way. He knows better. He knows it is the business of the newspaper to furnish him every day the information by which his conduct for that day must be determined. The same is to some extent true of every one of us who has any definite aim in life. It is from the newspaper, at first or at second hand, that we get the facts by which our general conduct is regulated from day to day. Unfortunately, however, except in the case of brokers, grocers, lumbermen and the like, neither the newspapers nor the readers are as yet wholly aware of the real nature of their relation and of their duties one to another.

THE CHIEF DEFECTS.

"Many editors who would consider it dishonorable to tamper with the market reports or the shipping news for the sake of private or party interests, will yet have no hesitation in suppressing information which does not seem to bear out the claims of their party or their faction. Facts will be so handled as to disguise their real import, untrustworthy data will be used as if there were no question of their accuracy, commercial tendencies will be deliberately ignored. Notice, if you please, that I am not basing my objection to these practices on the ground that they are immoral, though evidently something needs to be said on that score also. I am simply pointing out that the professional man's needs, which ought to be consulted in the general news columns of the newspaper, as it is now arranged, and in the editorial, quite as much as in the market reports, are quietly disregarded. Sometimes the business man can trust what he finds in the editorial and telegraphic reports. Sometimes he is left in doubt. Sometimes he can be sure that the report is intentionally misleading. I call the newspapers attach as much importance to accurate statements in every part of the paper as in the reports of prize fights and of the movements of ocean steamers, the reader cannot expect to get all the light that he needs for the conduct of his business.

HOW TO READ PAPERS.

"As we look over the crowded columns of the day's issue, we see in general only fragments. The significance of the facts has been omitted. We must supply it for ourselves. It is essential, therefore, that we bring to the reading of the newspaper, for its social news, just such an organ of interpretation as the business man brings to the detection of professional news. We must have definite interests which shall guide us to the facts we need and definite conceptions of the movements of society into which these facts may fall; and we must not allow irrelevant subjects, no matter how they tease and jangle, to distract us from our aim.

"I can't tell you what your social interests should be. That depends on your own individual character. But suppose any one of you should say to himself, 'I am either going to read the paper for a purpose or I am not going to read it at all, and for the next month I will try this experiment: I will select, outside of my own business, one definite subject in which I am now interested, and I will chase that subject straight through the paper from one end to the other. I will not pause for anything, however attractive, which does not throw light upon that subject." It would be a curious and instructive task to watch that man's reading, to watch him plow through the chaff in search of the few grains that alone will nourish his growing thought. A column would for him dwindle to a single line. Out of a whole page, but a single paragraph would remain. That would be reading to some purpose, and if he kept it up long enough and the newspaper gave him the help it ought the result would be simply a liberal education in that subject."

FARMERS OPEN WAR ON THE FRUIT TRUST.

BATTLE IS WAGING IN SAN FRANCISCO AND MAY BE CARRIED TO OAKLAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—The fruit war still rages fiercely between the California Co-operative Fruit Growers' Association and the "Big Four," otherwise known as the Commission Merchants' Protective Association, and from present indications neither side has shown any indications of giving up the struggle.

The present trouble was caused by about forty fruit growers in the Sacramento Valley forming a protective association known as the California Co-operative Fruit Growers' Association, as the fruit growers claim that the "Big Four" in this city were not giving them the proper prices for their products.

They formed their association and sent their fruit to this city, where buildings had been secured, and disposed of it to the merchants at prices greatly lower than the former prices given by the "Big Four."

The smaller commission merchants throughout the city and vicinity were buying their produce from the farmers when the "Big Four" became wise and commenced a boycott against the farmers' association by refusing to sell any merchant produce who would buy from the California Co-operative Fruit Growers' Association.

Both sides say that they are prepared to carry the war to a finish, and although the merchants favor the farmers they fear the all powerful "Big Four." As yet the war has not been carried outside of San Francisco, but at any moment it is expected that hostilities will be carried on in Oakland, as most all of the produce merchants in that city are buying from the California Co-operative Fruit Growers' Association.

DISEASES IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

EYE TROUBLES ARE QUICKLY SPREAD AMONG THE STUDENTS.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Contagious diseases have reached the proportions of a full-fledged epidemic among the school children of Manhattan, according to a report by Health Commissioner Lederle to the Board of Education.

"A few weeks ago," said he, "in order to learn the extent of eye diseases in the schools of Manhattan, I appointed twelve specialists to go so far as they could in the fortnight of the school year then remaining. They examined 55,400 children in thirty-six schools and learned that no less than 6670, or 12 per cent, exhibited contagious eye diseases.

"Of these 2226 were of the severest type of trachoma, necessitating almost immediate operation. In the opinion of the examiners all of these children should be excluded from the schools to prevent further infection."

The commissioners asked that a room be set apart in each building suitable for medical examinations. To this the board agreed. Several of its members expressed an opinion, however, that the reports of the special examiners had been grossly exaggerated.

PERKINS WOULD HAVE NEW DEAL.

SENATOR WOULD STOP MUCH OF THE IMMIGRATION FROM EUROPE.

The Union League Club of San Francisco gave a reception last night to the members of the Congressional delegation from this State, and Senator George C. Perkins and Congressmen Kahn, Needham, Woods and Coombs were present. Letters expressing regret at not being able to attend were read from Senator Bard, Congressman Metcalf and Governor Gage. President George H. Phipps presided and Horace G. Platt delivered the address of welcome.

Senator Perkins spoke of the $70,000,000 in war taxes removed by the last Congress, and of the Cuban and Philippine legislation, which he thought entitled the Republican party to the full support of the people.

"If I had my way," said the Senator, alluding to the Chinese exclusion law, "I would stop much of the immigration from Europe now pouring into this country."

President William Thomas of the Water and Forest Association urged upon the delegation that they see to it that this State gets its full share of the benefits of the national irrigation law.

COUNT OWES MUCH MONEY.

HE MAKES A SETTLEMENT WITH A LONDON ANTIQUITY DEALER.

NEW YORK, July 31.—It is stated that Samuel Untermyer of New York has succeeded, cables the Paris correspondent of the Herald, in effecting a settlement of the long pending negotiation between Asher Werthemier, the London antiquity dealer, and Comte and Comtesse Boni de Castellane.

Suits have been before the American courts for more than a year and are still undecided, six judges who have thus far heard the cases being divided equally in opinion.

The case is now on appeal to the highest court of New York.

By the terms of the reported settlement, Wertheimer claim is admitted for the full amount with interest at 4 per cent. Comtesse Boni de Castellane agrees to pay at the rate of $100,000 per year. The claim, with interest, amounts to about $400,000.

To secure the payments, the American courts are to make an order for the installments to be paid out of the income in the hands of George J. Gould as trustee.

To provide against the possibility of loss in the event of Comtesse Boni de Castellane's death, it is agreed that she furnish Wertheimer with life insurance policies for the amount claimed.

SPECIAL COMMISSION GOES ON A TRIP

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Government commission consisting of Senor Tomas Corias, a prominent member of the Conservative party here, the British Consul in Panama and Generals Gomez and Morene, has left by steamer, says a Panama dispatch to the Herald. It is supposed the commission went to Agua Dulce, where the Government's main army is now stationed under Generals Morels, Berti and Castro.

The special object of the commission is not known.

Some reports say it is to arrange for an exchange of prisoners and others that it is authorized to arrange the preliminary for a treaty of peace if possible.

The Government fleet left last evening, also for Agua Dulce. The commission is expected to return about Thursday.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR A RAILROAD

Charles J. Hughes Jr., general counsel.

P. A. Sumner, formerly State Engineer of Colorado, was appointed chief engineer. Mr. Sumner had charge of the construction of the Florence and Cripple Creek Railway and has just finished building the El Paso division of the Rock Island.

PUEBLO, Colo., July 31.—Faison, Leach & Co., and Devitt, Trimble & Co., Chicago bankers, have closed a contract for the purchase of the Pueblo Gas Light Company's property, the consideration being in the neighborhood of $500,000. Lewis E. Eyman of Chicago, it is understood, will be at the head of the new company.

MILITIA HAS BEEN ORDERED TO TURN OUT.

STRIKERS IN THE COAL DISTRICT TRICT WILL HAVE TO FACE THE SOLDIERS

SHENANDOAH, Pa., July 31.—The pickets who have been guarding the approaches to the mines were not on duty this morning, but if they had been their vigilance would not have been rewarded, as no person was venturesome enough to run the gauntlet after the exciting experiences of last night.

Brigadier General Gobel, Pennsylvania National Guard, accompanied by the Pottsville and Pine Grove Companies of the Eighth Regiment, arrived at 6:30 this morning. He said that he has ordered out the entire Twelfth and Eighth Regiments and the Governor's troops, and if he finds the conditions here warrant it he intends calling out two batteries of artillery.

Considerable delay was experienced in securing the necessary twenty signatures to the call upon the Governor for troops. Most of the citizens declined to append their names for fear of the boycott likely to follow.

Councilman George W. Good of Pottsville was present when the first outbreak occurred. He was seized by one of the rioters, but he succeeded in holding his place on the locomotive of the train he had taken to reach home. He burned his hand by grasping the steam chest.

It is impossible to obtain names of the wounded foreigners. The physicians are attending twenty and have little hope for the recovery of at least two.

Two machinists of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company's shops were severely beaten and are in the Pottsville Hospital. W. W. Pasco, a deputy, while escorting a number of workmen at Merriam Colliery near Ashland late last night, received a load of buckshot in his shoulder and he is now in the State Hospital at Ashland. His assailant is unknown.

SUPERVISORS AS EQUALIZERS.

LITTLE BUSINESS TRANSACTED AT THE SESSION THIS MORNING.

The Supervisors met this morning as a County Board of Equalization.

W. H. Church as executor of the estate of Susan B. May, asked for an equalization of the assessment on 240 acres of land near Livermore and a reduction of the assesment from $4,800 to $4,000.

Mr. Church said that the assessment was evidently a clerical mistake. Property on one side of his was assessed at $11 per acre and property on the other side was fixed at the same rate, while his property was assessed at $20 per acre. He had spoken to Assessor Dalton about it, but that official had told him it was too late to make the desired correction in the books. The Assessor, however, had given his consent to the reduction of the assessment.

Owing to the absence of the Assessor, the matter was laid over till Monday next.

Mrs. Gibbs asked for a reduction of assessment on her property on Seventeenth street between West and Market streets from $2,800 to $2,000.

The request was continued until Monday.

The Board adjourned till Monday next at 11 o'clock a. m.

SEEKS TO SECURE A SEPARATION.

MADELINE BRUGUIERE WANTS TO BE FREED FROM HER ARTIST HUSBAND.

Pretty Mrs. Madeline McKisick Bruguiere, actress and art student, and a graduate of a young ladies' seminary in this city, has filed a complaint with the County Clerk of San Francisco charging her husband, Pedar Bruguiere, with desertion, alleging that she married him in January, 1898, and he deserted her in the month of October of the same year, and has ever since remained away.

The young couple first met in this city and a friendship developed that ended in an elopement on New Year's Day, 1898. The husband dabbled in art as well as his wife, but a few months after the marriage, he became imbibed with the idea that he was cut out for a famous physician and would leave his wife for weeks at a time and frequent the hospitals. Tiring of the actions of her husband, Mrs. Bruguiere went to the home of her mother, at 1534 Grove street, San Francisco, where she remained for a time. Subsequently she went on the stage and has been filling engagements with several well known theatrical troupes. She is at present in New York, but will leave shortly to come out here to prosecute the charge preferred against her husband.

Pedar Bruguiere, the husband, has given up medicine and he is now at the home of his mother, 1800 Franklin street, and it is said that he is studying law with a view to defending his own case. He has been giving his wife a small monthly allowance.

WILL AWAIT DECISION OF SUPREME COURT.

BERKELEY, July 31.—The cases of William J. Ocheson, James T. Landregan, John McCarthy and Thomas D. Nealon, charged with violating the mile limit law, have gone over to be set for trial on August 5. The postponement was made in order that the Supreme Court might hand down its decision in the liquor cases now on appeal before the new cases come up for trial.

PLUM DID NOT ACCEPT RELIGION

WAS RELEASED FROM CUSTODY THIS MORNING WITHOUT ACCEPTING MRS. SHEPERD'S FAITH.

H. L. Plum, the discharged soldier who was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace of Mrs. A. Sheperd Ayers, a missionary worker, was released from custody, as there was no complaint filed against him.

Mrs. Sheperd stated yesterday that the ex-soldier had followed her for a month and had greatly annoyed her at street meetings and other places where she spoke by his attentions. On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Sheperd alleges, he followed her from a meeting at the corner of Eighth and Broadway into the Peniel Gospel Mission, where she commanded him to desist. The soldier protested that he had never seen the woman before, but she had him arrested.

Yesterday she said she would not prosecute, if the soldier would profess conversion to her religious doctrine. Plum replied that he had been three years in the Philippines and was not in need of religion.

This morning Mrs. Sheperd failed to appear against him and he was discharged.

Regarding the allegation that he had been following the mission worker, Plum said that he had arrived on the transport Sheridan on the 23d instant and that he was never in Oakland before the night he was arrested. He had a sum of over $700 on him when taken into custody.

When released this morning Plum remarked that it was a queer way of converting a man to religion and departed on his way.

A PRISONER OF AUSTRALIAN BUSHMEN.

News has been received in New York of the death on shipboard in the straits of Java of Joseph J. Gill, who left New York for Australia in August, 1886, and last March, after twelve years' imprisonment among the bushmen of Australia, who had mourned him as dead.

Gill was the son of the late Thomas Gill, a Brooklyn soap manufacturer. After his release from captivity he remarried, supposing his wife to be dead. In 1893, the wife, whom he last saw in 1886, also remarried.

Four years after Gill went to Australia a letter was received by his family in Brooklyn from the American Consul at Sydney, New South Wales, stating that Joseph J. Gill, a wealthy miner, and four companions had been ambushed and killed by bushmen in the interior of Australia. Gill's companions were killed, but he was spared by his captors and made to do menial work.

After twelve years he escaped. A detective agency from which Gill sought information reported that his wife was dead.

Gill's thoughts continually reverted to his old home and in March last he wrote to Inspector McLaughlin of the Brooklyn police to ask if his brothers were still living. Inspector McLaughlin found Gill's mother, Mrs. Isabella Gil, at 113 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. A brother, Thomas Gill, has carried on the business of the Thomas Gill Soap Company since the death of Thomas Gill, Sr., in 1887.—From the New York World.

Many Queer Things Lost.

State Superintendent of Schools Charles R. Skinner, tells of the janitor of a city school, who threw up his job one day, and when asked by a friend what the trouble was, said:

"Well, it's this. I'm honest, and I won't stand bein' slurred. If I ever found a pencil or anything else in the school when I was sweepin' out I always gave it to the principal, but, just the same, the teachers, or someone that's too mean to face me, gave me the slur."

"In what way?" asked the friend.

"Well, just this. A little while ago I saw written on the board: 'Find the common multiple.' Well, I didn't say a word, but I searched from garret to cellar, and I couldn't find the darn thing. Well, again last night, in big writin' on the same board, it said: 'Find the common divisor.' 'Well,' I says to myself, says I, 'both them darn things be lost now, and I'll get blamed for swipin' 'em, so I'll quit.' —Baltimore Herald.

All the railroads between Kansas City and Topeka are using the Union Pacific's tracks. The great corporations sometimes offer examples of brotherly love which mankind generally would do well to emulate.

PORTUGUESE AT SAN LEANDRO.

Coming Celebration of U. P. E. C's Twenty-Second Birthday.

SAN LEANDRO, July 31. The twenty-second anniversary of the organization of the Vnio Portuguese Estado California will be celebrated in San Leandro next Saturday under the auspices of the grand lodge, assisted by San Leandro Lodge No. 1, and California Lodge No. 55.

Saturday night, the installation team, grand officers and about 300 candidates will meet in the U. P. E. C. hall, where the candidates will be initiated into the order. At the same time, in St. Joseph's hall, a few blocks away, an entertainment of an elaborate order will be given for the relatives and members who are not permitted to witness the initiation ceremonies. The entertainment will consist of musical and literary selections of merit. Great care has been taken in the selection of features for this affair, which the society proposes to make one of the most interesting ever given by the U. P. E C.

On Sunday the visitors and local members of the society will hold a picnic at San Lorenzo Grove, where dancing and games will form the amusements of the day.

It is expected that between four and five thousand visitors will be in San Leandro on that occasion. The U. P. E C. is the most popular Portuguese society in California, and the selection of San Leandro as the place of celebration of the twenty-second anniversary of the order, is deemed a great compliment to the town and the local lodges.

When the man was picked up he was in an unconscious condition. He was carried to the home of his friend and a physician summoned. The man suffered a great deal from his injuries.

A NEW ROAD FOR FRUITVALE.

Fine Buildings Going Up in the Prosperous Suburban Town.

FRUITVALE, July 31.—Work is now well under way on the new road which will connect Washington and Fruitvale avenues. The strip of land which is being graded was recently deeded to the county by the Pruguere estate and is about 700 feet long and eighty feet wide.

When the recent work was completed on the tidal canal the continuation of Washington avenue to Fruitvale avenue was cut off, which made traveling in that district inconvenient. With the new road completed a great deal of time will be saved persons traveling in that direction.

HAYWARDS NEW LIBRARY MAN.

Van Dyke's Friends Say He Will Not Leave Library Trustees.

HAYWARDS, July 31.—At the last meeting of the Town Trustees, C. Van Dyke was appointed a member of the Board of Library Trustees. Rumor is now current that influence is being brought to bear by certain members of the Town Trustees to cause Mr. Van Dyke to resign, in order that a man by the name of Cooper may be put in that place. As Mr. Van Dyke is a well-known business man of Haywards, and his appointment was made at the request of prominent merchants and citizens, a feeling of indignation has been caused by the alleged attempt to pull the Trustee out.

So far Mr. Van Dyke has not announced his intention of resiging from the Board, and his friends say they will be on hand to see that he does not do so.

Mr. Van Dyke's friends say that he is entitled to the appointment because he was regularly appointed by Chairman Heyer, and because he is a business man and located in Haywards, while the man who it is rumored would replace him, works in San Francisco and only sleeps in Haywards.

CANDIDATES FOR NOMINATION.

The United Labor Party of the Forty-sixth Assembly District has selected the following candidates for nomination. The selection was made at a recent meeting: For auditor, Tony Kelley; county superintendent of schools, G. W. Kraft; assemblyman, T. Manning; supervisor, C. Heyer; justice of the peace, G. W. Toyne; Constable, J. Obermuller.

The following delegates to the county convention were also elected: Captain R. D. Allen, G. W. Toyne, W. Allen, F. Mitchell, G. W. Kraft, C. Nelson, H. P. Nelson, W. Bondie, T. Kelley, C. Maloon, R. Rogers, T. Manning.

LIBRARY OFFICERS.

A meeting of the Board of Library Trustees was held recently and the following were elected: G. A. Oakes, president; G W. Toyne, secretary; Mrs. L. Prowse, librarian. The certificate of the appointment of C. Van Dyke in the place of C. Allen, whose term had expired, was received and accepted. The affairs of the library were discussed and it was reported that the list of books had greatly increased during the past year, and that everything was in first-class condition. According to its size, Haywards has one of the most complete free public libraries in the State. The library was recently moved into new quarters, and since that time many new books have been received and the arrangement of the establishment has been changed.

REPAIRING HALL.

Extensive repairs will shortly be commenced on Odd Fellows' Hall, it having been decided at the last meeting of the officers that such work was necessary. A new carpet will replace the present one, while the interior of the hall will be painted and papered. The work will cost in the neighborhood of $400.

NEW BLACKBOARDS.

A new set of blackboards is being placed in the High School. It will be in shape for use by the opening of this term.

TEACHERS TO MEET.

A meeting of the teachers of the Grammar School has been called for Saturday afternoon, August 2d, at 3 o'clock. The Board of Directors have requested that all the teachers be present.

NOTES OF INTEREST.

Miss Nellie Ramage has gone to San Francisco, where she will attend the Normal School.

George Grindell and wife are away on a camping trip in Trinity county.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashford and Mr. and Mrs. Schmauch are camping in the vicinity of Boulder Creek.

IMPORTANT

NOTICE TO VOTERS

REGISTRATION

Office of the County Clerk, Alameda County, Cal.

NOTICE IS HEREBY given that in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 53 Statutes of 1899, all voters of Alameda County must apply for re-registration in order to be able to vote at the General Election in November, as every name on Great Register was cancelled January 1st, 1902.

Owing to the fact that there is no provision of law providing assistance for the Clerk to register voters, IT IS IMPORTANT THAT VOTERS SHOULD APPLY FOR REGISTRATION AT ONCE IN ORDER TO EXPEDITE THE WORK.

Such re-registration began on the 1st day of January, and will be in progress at all times until forty days preceding the next election in November.

In order to facilitate the work of re-registration, attention is called to the provisions of Section 1097, which reads as follows:

Sec. 1097. No person's name must be entered by the Clerk, unless:

1. Upon the production and filing of a certified copy of the judgment of the Superior Court directing such entry to be made.

2. If a naturalized citizen, upon the production of his certificate of naturalization, which certificate must be issued ninety days prior to the succeeding election, or upon his affidavit that it is lost or out of his possession, which affidavit must state the place of his nativity and the time and place of his naturalization, together with his affidavit that he has resided in the United States for five years, and in this State for one year next preceding the time of application, and that he would be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election; provided, however, if such naturalized citizen shall have been previously registered as a qualified elector in any of the counties, or cities and counties of this State, his name must not be entered by the Clerk unless he produces a certificate of such registration, issued by the party authorized by law to issue such certificate, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of his naturalization.

3. If born in a foreign country, upon his affidavit that he became a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of his father while he was residing in the United States, and under the age of twenty-one years, and that he is or would be an elector of the county at the next ensuing election.

4. In other cases, upon the affidavit of the party that he is or will be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election.

Further notice is hereby given that Affidavits of Registration must be sworn to before the County Clerk or his deputies, and that they can not, owing to the provisions of the new Registration Law, be sworn to before any other officer.

The office of the County Clerk will be, until further notice, open for registration from Nine A. M. until Five P. M. each day.

FRANK C. JORDAN,
County Clerk, Alameda County.

MONTE CRISTO Oil and Development Co.

Capitalization, 500,000 Shares
PAR VALUE, $1.00.

Owns outright (clear title) 140 acres of the N. W. ¼ in 5-29-28, all of which is proven oil land in the very heart of the Kern River District.

Has 41 wells at present and will drill 4 more and then stop further expense of drilling.

Has a contract for five millions (5,000,000) barrels of oil with the Standard Oil Company at 20 cents per barrel for 5 years.

The fact of another large company having a similar contract and paying big dividends on the production of 16 wells only, proves conclusively that the Monte Cristo is bound to pay larger dividends by the 1st of January, 1903.

For statement and comparison of these facts write to the undersigned, who will be pleased to furnish the proof of his assertions.

The stock is listed at the Exchange and at present shares can be bought in the open market at the low price of $1.25 per share.
